8.6 If item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, please provide answers to the following questions:
8.6.1 Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?
Answer: Fluence expects significant positive cash flow from the Ivory Coast project in Q3 2024, as well as the release of collateral in Ivory Coast and Argentina related to completed projects. Combined with increased cash collections and customer deposits from new orders across other business units, we expect Q3 and Q4 to have positive operating cash flow.

8.6.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: On 29 July, 2024, Fluence entered into an agreement with Nikolaus Oldendorff and Doug Brown to provide for up to $15.0 million (the “Revolving Facility”) at a variable interest rate equal to the US Prime Rate to provide working capital support for the Company.

8.6.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: Yes, Fluence has a cash position of $7.9 million as of June 30, 2024. The company is forecasting positive operating cash flow in Q3-Q4 2024. In addition, the Company has entered into an agreement with Nikolaus Oldendorff and Doug Brown to provide for up to $15.0 million (the “Revolving Facility”), which is in place to provide additional working capital support. With the current cash balance, the additional liquidity provided by the Revolving Facility and the positive cash flow expected in Q3-Q4 2024, the Company expects to continue its operations and meet its business objectives.

Note: where item 8.5 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.6.1, 8.6.2 and 8.6.3 above must be answered.

Notes

1. This quarterly cash flow report and the accompanying activity report provide a basis for informing the market about the entity’s activities for the past quarter, how they have been financed and the effect this has had on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information over and above the minimum required under the Listing Rules is encouraged to do so.
2. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standard applies to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
4. By the board.
5. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors and you wish to hold yourself out as complying with recommendation 4.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council’s Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the board should have received a declaration from its CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that this report complies with the appropriate accounting standards and gives a true and fair view of the cash flows of the entity, and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
