This notice is to inform you of the Offers. You are not required to do anything in respect to this letter. If you are an eligible shareholder your choices with respect to the Offers are:

- take up only a portion of your Entitlement and allow the balance to lapse; or
- take up all of your Entitlement under the Entitlement Offer and do no more, or

To the extent you take up less than your full Entitlement, it is expected that your holdings will be diluted as a result of the issue of the New Shares and New Options issued under the Prospectus.

Before making a decision about investing in the Entitlement Offer, you should seek advice from your stockbroker, accountant, financial adviser, taxation adviser or other independent professional adviser to determine whether it meets your objectives, financial situation and needs.

The Directors have reserved the right for up to 3 months after the close of each of the Institutional Entitlement Offer and the Retail Entitlement Offer to place any shortfall under the Entitlement Offer, including after the Top-Up Offer (if any) at a price no less than the Issue Price.

- (a) the relatively small number of Shareholders with addresses in such other countries as a proportion of total Shareholders in the Company;
- (b) the relatively small number and value of the Shares those Shareholders would be offered under the Entitlement Offer; and
- (c) the cost to the Company of complying with applicable legal and regulatory requirements in such other countries.

Accordingly, the Entitlement Offer (including the Top-Up Offer) will not be made to shareholders residing in the jurisdiction in which your shareholding is registered.
