ASX/Media Release (ASX: KNM)

Quarterly Activities Report & Appendix 4C

KNeoMedia Limited ("KneoMedia", "KNM" or the "Company"), a SaaS and CSP publishing company delivering world-class education and assessment products, provides this update on activities and performance for the quarter ended 30 June 2025. All figures are in AUD unless stated otherwise.

Corporate Update

Progress Toward ASX Reinstatement:

As previously advised, since the suspension of the Company's shares on 7 March 2024, the Board has remained focused on securing the necessary funding and satisfying ASX listing rule requirements to enable a resumption of trading. Key achievements to date include the successful completion of the FY2024 financial audit and confirmation of an appropriate working capital position at that time. Further initiatives have included a September 2024, $1.25 million placement to sophisticated investors, approved by shareholders at a 27 August 2024 Extraordinary General Meeting, and a December 2024 fully underwritten entitlement offer which raised $1.657 million. The offer allowed existing shareholders to participate on similar terms to the placement, with Directors providing additional support via sub-underwriting and the conversion of loans into equity.

With both capital raisings completed the focus now remains on the third component of finalising outstanding revenue payable to the Company and securing FY2026 revenue particularly through the KneoScience platform. With the collection of substantial receivables and the securing of the future revenue stream, the Company will attain a sustainable working capital position. The expected finalisation of key contracts with the New York City Department of Education is anticipated to further strengthen the Company's financial position and support the lifting of the ASX suspension.

The Directors reaffirm the Going Concern Statement as outlined in the FY2024 Annual Report, with core assumptions either already achieved or progressing in line with expectations while also managing changing leadership within the NYCDOE.

Operational and Review Update

Nominal additional revenue was received during the quarter from Florida operations in line with end of school year expectations.

The Company continued to invest in Intellectual Property of $232,000 (March quarter $351,000 and December quarter $186,000) primarily on the increased functionality of the KneoScience CSP developed in close cooperation with the New York City Department of Education ("NYC DOE"). Part of the development cost was related to the inclusion of the mandated 9 language translations to cater for the wide range of New York City student nationalities and the now requested mandated high school science investigations. The initial Science Investigations included grades 3-8 in Elementary and Middle Schools. At the request of the DOE, KNM has now added the Biology Investigations for High School students to its Content Services Platform and envisages deployment to students in February 2025. This is a most significant development and reinforces the unique value the DOE attributes to the KneoScience platform. The inclusion of 530 High Schools increases the potential student deployment by 300,000 students and potential for additional substantial revenue. While the Company has invested in this additional content, it will secure contractual arrangements before meeting deployment requests.

Since announcing the Company's original development investment in KneoScience, in October 2024, educators have now had the opportunity use the platform extensively, particularly during the last few months of the FY 2025 academic year which is now ended.

Educators consistently report that KneoScience increases student engagement while significantly reducing preparation and grading time.

As KneoScience is a secure content Services Platform not available for public viewing, some key features are outlined for better shareholder understanding of its unique benefits:

Developed in partnership with the New York City Department of Education (NYCDOE), KneoScience digitizes the NYSED-mandated Science Investigations for Grades 3–8. Built collaboratively with divisions across NYCDOE and NYSED KneoScience replaces outdated paper processes with a modern, efficient, and inclusive digital platform.

Key Benefits

- Cuts teacher workload by up to 50%
- Delivers real-time data on student participation and performance
- Promotes 21st-century skills and enthusiastic student participation
- Enables full participation for dyslexic and cognitively diverse learners through audio-visual content and flexible submission methods (voice recordings, drawings)
- Multi-lingual ultimately in 9 languages

Instructional Alignment

KneoScience directly supports NYCDOE's instructional priorities, including:

- Inquiry-based learning and collaborative investigation
- Structured protocols aligned with NYSED performance expectations
- Technology integration that enhances learning experiences
- Inclusive design for neurodiverse learners
- Digital grading system with rubric-based feedback
- Secure student data wallets to track progress across schools

Performance Framework

The platform integrates NYSED's eight Science Investigation Rubrics to help teachers assess student understanding and tailor instruction accordingly. All student work is digitally stored and accessible for tracking, grading, and transfers.

High School & Future Expansion

KneoScience is now expanding into Regents-level investigations for high school sciences:

- Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, and Physics content is in final development.
- These modules will include multilingual access and align with NYSED standards.

KneoScience Summary

KneoScience is now a proven, scalable platform developed with NYC educators for NYC students. It enables rigorous, inclusive science learning at scale while cutting administrative time and improving student outcomes. With early success across multiple districts and Regents-level tools nearly ready, KneoScience help NYCDOE meet and exceed its science proficiency targets., evidenced by recent school results.
