- (e) Where a Shareholder is entitled to cast two or more votes, the Shareholder may appoint two proxies and may specify the proportion of number of votes each proxy is appointed to exercise.
- (f) If a Shareholder appoints two proxies, and the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the Shareholder's votes, each proxy may exercise half of the votes.
- (g) A proxy must be signed by the Shareholder or his or her attorney who has not received any notice of revocation of the authority.
- (h) If a Shareholder's named proxy does not attend the EGM or fails to vote on a poll in accordance with the Shareholder's instructions, the Chair of the EGM will be that Shareholder's proxy by default.

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Purpose of Information

This Explanatory Statement is included in, and forms part of, the Notice. The purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide Shareholders with information they may require in order to make an informed decision on the applicable resolution.

If you are in doubt as to how to vote, you should seek advice from your accountant, solicitor, tax advisor or other professional adviser prior to voting. It is important that you read this Explanatory Statement in its entirety for a detailed explanation of the applicable resolution.

Defined terms used in this Notice have the meanings given to them in the Glossary in Annexure A.

Resolution 1 Ratification of agreement to issue Fash Options to Benjamin Fash

1.1 Background

As announced on August 26, 2025, the Company has executed an executive employment agreement (Executive Employment Agreement) to appoint Mr Benjamin Fash, the Company's current Chief Financial Officer, as the Company's next Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) on or before December 30, 2025 (Start Date). Mr. Fash will succeed Mr Thomas Pokorsky following a transition period. The material terms of Mr Fash's appointment as Managing Director and CEO are set out in Annexure B.

In determining the terms of the Executive Employment Agreement, the Board considered the Company's ongoing incentive strategy to retain talent and to encourage key decision makers, including senior executives and the Directors, to pursue or continue to pursue (as applicable) the Company's strategies in relation to the Company's financial performance and Share price performance.

As such, pursuant to the Executive Employment Agreement, on the Start Date, Mr Fash will be issued 32,000,000 Options each with an exercise price of $0.054 per Option expiring on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Start Date (Fash Options).

A summary of the material terms of the Fash Options are set out in Annexure C.

Resolution 1 seeks Shareholder approval for the ratification of the agreement to issue the Fash Options.

1.2 Listing Rule 7.4

Broadly speaking, and subject to a number of exceptions, ASX Listing Rule 7.1 limits the amount of Equity Securities that a listed company can issue without the approval of its shareholders over any 12-month period to 15% of the fully paid ordinary shares it had on issue at the start of that period.

ASX Listing Rule 7.4 provides that ASX Listing Rule 7.1 does not apply to an issue of, or an agreement to issue securities made without approval for the purpose of ASX Listing Rule 7.1, where the issue or agreement did not breach ASX Listing Rule 7.1 and shareholder approval is subsequently obtained. The agreement to issue of Fash Options (being the Executive Employment Agreement) was not approved under ASX Listing Rule 7.1 but was made in compliance with ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

Accordingly, Resolution 1 seeks Shareholder approval for the ratification of the agreement to issue the Fash Options for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 7.4.

If Resolution 1 is passed, the agreement to issue the Fash Options to Mr Fash will be ratified and therefore the Fash Options will be excluded in calculating the Company's 15% limit under ASX Listing Rule 7.1, effectively increasing the number of Equity Securities it can issue without Shareholder approval over the 12-month period following the date of the Executive Employment Agreement.

If Resolution 1 is not passed, the Company is obligated to comply with the agreement to issue, and will issue, the Fash Options, but the Fash Options will be included in calculating the Company's 15% limit under ASX Listing Rule 7.1, decreasing the number of Equity Securities it can issue without Shareholder approval over the 12-month period following the date of the Executive Employment Agreement.

1.3 Listing Rules 10.11 and 10.12

ASX Listing Rule 10.11 requires shareholder approval to be obtained where an entity issues, or agrees to issue, securities to a related party, or a person whose relationship with the entity or a related party is, in ASX's opinion, such that approval should be obtained unless an exception in ASX Listing Rule 10.12 applies.

At the time of issuing the Fash Options, Mr Fash will be a related party of the Company. As such, shareholder approval pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 10.11 is required unless an exception under ASX Listing Rule 10.12 applies.

ASX Listing Rule 10.12, Exception 12 provides that an issue of equity securities under an agreement or transaction between the entity and a person who would not otherwise be a related party but for the fact that they believe, or have reasonable grounds to believe, that they are likely to become a related party in the future because of the agreement or transaction is an exception to ASX Listing Rule 10.11.

The Executive Employment Agreement executed between the Company and Mr Fash, which provides for the issue of the Fash Options to Mr Fash, was agreed and executed prior to Mr Fash becoming a related party of the Company. The Company confirms that Mr Fash is not otherwise an ASX Listing Rule '10.11 party' for the purposes of ASX Guidance Note 25 at the time the Executive Employment Agreement was agreed and executed.

Accordingly, the Company has relied upon ASX Listing Rule 10.12, Exception 12 and therefore not sought Shareholder approval for the issue of the Fash Options to Mr Fash.

1.4 Chapter 2E of the Corporations Act

Chapter 2E of the Corporations Act requires that for a public company, or an entity that the public company controls, to give a financial benefit to a related party of the public company, the public company or entity must:

- obtain the approval of the public company's members in the manner set out in sections 217 to 227 of the Corporations Act; and
- give the benefit within 15 months following such approval, unless the giving of the financial benefit falls within an exception set out in sections 210 to 216 of the Corporations Act. An exception under section 211 applies where the financial benefit constitutes part of the related party's "reasonable remuneration".

The issue of the Fash Options to Mr Fash constitutes giving a financial benefit as at the time of issue Mr Fash will be a related party of the Company by virtue of being a Director.

It is the view of the Board that the financial benefit given by issuing the Fash Options constitutes reasonable remuneration to Mr Fash having regard to:

- the circumstances of the Company, including its current cash position;
- Mr Fash's circumstances including his roles and responsibilities at the Company; and
- the ability to compensate Mr Fash in line with current market practices in lieu of cash payments to preserve the Company's cash flow.

Considering the above, the Company will rely on the exception contained in section 211(1) of the Corporations Act and is not seeking Shareholder approval for the issue of the Fash Options to Mr Fash pursuant to section 208 of the Corporations Act.

1.5 Technical Information Required under ASX Listing Rule 7.5

Pursuant to and in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 7.5, the following information is provided in relation to the issue of the Fash Options:

- (a) The Fash Options will be issued to Mr Benjamin Fash (and/or his nominees).
- (b) 32,000,000 Fash Options will be issued to Mr Fash.

- (c) A summary of the material terms of the Fash Options is set out in Annexure C.
- (d) The Fash Options will be issued to Mr Fash on the Start Date, being no later than 3 months after the date of the Meeting.
- (e) The Fash Options will be issued for nil consideration, other than the performance of Mr Fash's duties under the Executive Employment Agreement. If Mr Fash exercises any Fash Options, Mr Fash will be required to pay the Exercise Price for those Fash Options (or utilize the cashless conversion which would result in fewer shares being issued). The Exercise Price payable for each Share to be issued upon exercise of the Fash Options is set out in Annexure C.
- (f) The purpose of the issue of the Fash Options is to provide an equity component in the remuneration package for Mr Fash to align his interests with those of Shareholders, to motivate and reward the performance of Mr Fash in his role as Managing Director and CEO in line with market practice, and to provide a cost effective way for the Company to remunerate Mr Fash which will allow the Company to spend a greater proportion of its cash reserves on its operations.
- (g) The Fash Options are proposed to be issued under the Executive Employment Agreement, a summary of the material terms of the Executive Employment Agreement are set out in Annexure B.
- (h) A voting exclusion statement is included in the Notice.

1.6 Directors' Recommendation

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 1.

The Chairman of the Meeting intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 1.

1.7 Voting Prohibitions

In accordance with section 250BD of the Corporations Act, a person appointed as a proxy must not vote, on the basis of that appointment, on Resolution 1 if:

- (a) the proxy is either a member of the Key Management Personnel or a Closely Related Party of such member; and
- (b) the appointment does not specify the way the proxy is to vote on Resolution 1.

However, the above prohibition does not apply if:

- (c) the proxy is the Chair; and
- (d) the appointment expressly authorises the Chair to exercise the proxy even though Resolution 1 is connected directly or indirectly with remuneration of a member of the Key Management Personnel.

1.8 Voting Exclusions

In addition, the Company will disregard any votes cast in favour of Resolution 1 by or on behalf of:

- (a) Benjamin Fash (or his nominee); and
- (b) any other person who is expected to participate in, or who will obtain a material benefit as a result of the issue of, the proposed issue of the Fash Options (except a benefit solely by reason of being a holder of ordinary securities in the Company, or any associates of that person or those persons. However, this does not apply to a vote cast in favour of Resolution 1 by:

- (c) a person as proxy or attorney for a person who is entitled to vote on the resolution, in accordance with directions given to the proxy or attorney to vote on the resolution in that way; or
- (d) the Chair of the Meeting as proxy or attorney for a person who is entitled to vote on the resolution, in accordance with a direction given to the chair to vote on the resolution as the chair decides; or
- (e) a holder acting solely in a nominee, trustee, custodial or other fiduciary capacity on behalf of a beneficiary provided that the following conditions are met:

- i. the beneficiary provides written confirmation to the holder that the beneficiary is not excluded from voting, and is not an Associate of a person excluded from voting, on the resolution; and
- ii. the holder votes on the resolution in accordance with directions given by the beneficiary to the holder to vote in that way.

Resolution 2 Approval of termination benefits to Mr Benjamin Fash

2.1 Background

Section 200B of the Corporations Act prohibits the Company from giving a benefit to a person in connection with that person's retirement, who holds (or has held in the previous three years) a managerial or executive office with the Company or a related body corporate, unless an exception applies or the giving of the benefit is approved by Shareholders under section 200E of the Corporations Act.

Pursuant to the Executive Employment Agreement, Mr Fash shall be entitled to termination benefits as set out below:

- certain acceleration rights as set out in paragraph 4 of Annexure C which apply to the Fash Options to be issued to Mr Fash and which are triggered upon termination of Mr Fash's appointment as Managing Director and CEO; and
- the termination payments to Mr Fash as set out in paragraph 5 of Annexure B, (together, the Termination Benefits).

The Termination Benefits are termination benefits for the purposes of section 200B of the Corporations Act.

Resolution 2 seeks Shareholder approval in accordance with Part 2D.2 of the Corporations Act (including sections 200B and 200E of the Corporations Act) and ASX Listing Rule 10.19 to approve the giving of the Termination Benefits to Mr Fash in the event Mr Fash ceases to be an officer of, or ceases to hold a managerial or executive office in, the Company on the terms and conditions in this Explanatory Statement.

If Resolution 2 is passed, the Company will have the ability to give the Termination Benefits to Mr Fash in the event Mr Fash ceases to be an officer of, or ceases to hold a managerial or executive office in, the Company.

If Resolution 2 is not passed, the Company will not be able to give the Termination Benefits to Mr Fash ceases to be an officer of, or ceases to hold a managerial or executive office in, the Company (except to the extent that such Termination Benefits are assessed as otherwise falling under an exemption under section 200F of the Corporations Act and otherwise satisfy ASX Listing Rule 10.19).

2.2 Section 200E of the Corporations Act

Section 200E of the Corporations Act requires the details of the benefit to be set out in this Explanatory Statement. Where the proposed benefit is a payment, this Explanatory Statement must provide:

- the amount of the payment; or
- if the amount of the payment cannot be ascertained at the time of the disclosure - the manner in which that amount is to be calculated and any matter, event or circumstance that will, or is likely to, affect the calculation of that amount.

The value of the Termination Benefits that relate to the acceleration of the Fash Options cannot presently be ascertained. However, matters, events and circumstances that will, or are likely to, affect the calculation of that value are:

- the number of Fash Options held by Mr Fash prior to the cessation of his employment;
- the date when, and the circumstances in which, Mr Fash ceases his employment;
- whether the vesting conditions of the Fash Options (as set out in Annexure C) are waived or (if not waived) met, and the number of Fash Options that vest; and

- the market price of the Shares on ASX on the date the Fash Options are vested and become exercisable.

The current value of the Termination Benefits that relate to the termination payments to be provided in accordance with the Executive Employment Agreement are CAD$310,000 (AUD$345,000).

2.3 ASX Listing Rule 10.19

ASX Listing Rule 10.19 provides that, without Shareholder approval, a company must ensure that no officer of the Company or any of its child entities (Officer) will, or may be, entitled to “termination benefits” if the value of those benefits and the termination benefits that are or may be payable to all Officers together exceed 5% of the equity interests of the Company as set out in the latest accounts given to ASX (5% Threshold).

Given the potential uncertainty in the value of the Termination Benefits payable, and in order to maintain flexibility, the Company seeks Shareholder approval under ASX Listing Rule 10.19 for the grant of such benefits to Mr Fash, in case the value exceeds the 5% Threshold.

2.4 Directors’ Recommendation

The Board recommends that Shareholders vote in favour of Resolution 2.

The Chairman of the Meeting intends to vote undirected proxies in favour of Resolution 2.

2.5 Voting Prohibitions

In accordance with section 250BD of the Corporations Act, a person appointed as a proxy must not vote, on the basis of that appointment, on Resolution 2 if:

- the proxy is either a member of the Key Management Personnel or a Closely Related Party of such member; and
- the appointment does not specify the way the proxy is to vote on Resolution 2.

However, the above prohibition does not apply if:

- the proxy is the Chair; and
- the appointment expressly authorises the Chair to exercise the proxy even though Resolution 2 is connected directly or indirectly with remuneration of a member of the Key Management Personnel.

2.6 Voting Exclusions

In addition, the Company will disregard any votes cast in favour of Resolution 2 by or on behalf of any officer of the Company or its child entities who is entitled to participate in a termination benefit or their associates.

However, this does not apply to a vote cast in favour of Resolution 2 by:

- a person as proxy or attorney for a person who is entitled to vote on the resolution, in accordance with directions given to the proxy or attorney to vote on the resolution in that way; or
- the Chair of the Meeting as proxy or attorney for a person who is entitled to vote on the resolution, in accordance with a direction given to the chair to vote on the resolution as the chair decides; or
- a holder acting solely in a nominee, trustee, custodial or other fiduciary capacity on behalf of a beneficiary provided that the following conditions are met:
 - the beneficiary provides written confirmation to the holder that the beneficiary is not excluded from voting, and is not an Associate of a person excluded from voting, on the resolution; and
 - the holder votes on the resolution in accordance with directions given by the beneficiary to the holder to vote in that way.

Resolutions 3(a) and 3(b) Approval of Conversion of Interest into Shares

3.1. Background

The Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Fluence Corporation LLC (Borrower) entered into a revolving facility agreement (Loan Agreement) with the Company's Non-executive Director, Nikolaus Oldendorff, and Chairman, Douglas Brown (collectively, the Lenders) for an initial maximum loan amount of US$15,000,000. The maximum loan amount was subsequently increased on 26 September 2024 to US$20,000,000 (Loan) (refer to the Company's ASX announcement on 30 July 2024 titled "FLC Repays Upwell loan in full & secures revolving credit", 31 October 2024 titled "Fluence Corporation Q3 2024 Business Update" and the Company's 2025 Notice of Annual General Meeting).

The Loan has accrued interest (Interest) at a variable rate that mirrors the US Prime Rate (Interest Rate).

On August 25, 2025, the Borrower and the Lenders agreed to amend the Loan Agreement (Amended Loan Agreement) to, subject to Shareholder approval, convert the accrued Interest into Shares (Conversion Shares).

Pursuant to the Amended Loan Agreement, the number of Conversion Shares is determined using the following formula:

$$\text{Number of Conversion Shares} = B / C$$

where:

B is the relevant accrued Interest in Australian Dollars (where the amount in Australian Dollars is calculated on the basis of the official currency exchange rate of U.S. Dollars to Australian Dollars established by the Reserve Bank of Australia for the business day immediately prior to the date of the Amended Loan Agreement, being USD 0.6417: AUD 1.00), and

C is the Conversion Price, being $0.054 which represents the 30-day VWAP of the Shares up to the trading day immediately prior to the date of the Amended Loan Agreement.

The Conversion Shares will be issued at an issue price of $0.054 per Conversion Share in the following proportions:

Director	Maximum Interest convertible (AU$)	Maximum Number of Conversion Shares
Nikolaus Oldendorff	$2,179,010.55	40,352,047
Douglas Brown	$655,675.66	12,142,142
TOTAL	2,834,686.21	52,494,189

Accordingly, the Company seeks Shareholder approval for the issue of:

- 40,352,047 Conversion Shares to Mr Oldendorff (allowing for $2,179,010.55 in accrued Interest attributable to Mr Oldendorff to be converted); and
- 12,142,142 Conversion Shares to Mr Brown (allowing for $655,675.66 in accrued Interest attributable to Mr Brown to be converted).

3.2. ASX Listing Rule 10.11

ASX Listing Rule 10.11 provides that unless one of the exceptions in ASX Listing Rule 10.12 applies, a listed company must not issue or agree to issue Equity Securities to certain persons without the approval of its shareholders, which includes persons who are a related party of the company or their associates.

Each of the Lenders are related parties of the Company by virtue of being Directors. Shareholder approval pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 10.11 is therefore required unless an exception applies. It is the view of the Board that the exceptions set out in ASX Listing Rule 10.12 do not apply in the current circumstances.

Approval pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 7.1 is not required for the issue of the Conversion Shares as approval is being obtained under ASX Listing Rule 10.11. Accordingly, if approved, the issue of the Conversion Shares to the Lenders (or their respective nominees) will not be included in the Company's 15% placement capacity pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 7.1.

The effect of Shareholders passing each of Resolutions 3(a) and (b) will be to allow the Company to issue the applicable Conversion Shares in lieu of repaying the applicable accrued Interest in cash, allowing the Company to retain a stronger cash balance.

If Shareholders pass Resolution 3(a), the Company will issue 40,352,047 Conversion Shares to Mr Oldendorff (and/or his nominees) and will retain up to $2,179,010.55 in cash reserves.

If Shareholders do not pass Resolution 3(a), the Company will not issue 40,352,047 Conversion Shares to Mr Oldendorff (and/or his nominees) and will need to pay $2,179,010.55 in Interest to Mr Oldendorff on the Interest payment due date.

If Shareholders pass Resolution 3(b), the Company will issue 12,142,142 Conversion Shares to Mr Brown (and/or his nominees) and will retain up to $655,675.66 in cash reserves.

If Shareholders do not pass Resolution 3(b), the Company will not issue 12,142,142 Conversion Shares to Mr Brown (and/or his nominees) and will need to pay $655,675.66 in Interest to Mr Brown on the Interest payment due date.

All Fash Options will expire at 5.00pm (AEDT) on the 7th anniversary of the Start Date. All Fash Options are time vesting. An initial 25% tranche of 8,000,000 will vest on the 1-year anniversary of the Start Date. The remaining 24,000,000 Fash Options will vest in equal 2,000,000 quarterly increments starting on one year and three months after the Start Date and each 3 months thereafter.

The Company is authorised by the holder to apply a holding lock on the relevant Shares during the period of such restriction from trading.

10. Adjustments for reorganisation or reconstruction

If the Company makes a bonus issue of Shares or other securities to existing Shareholders (other than an issue in lieu or in satisfaction of dividends or by way of dividend reinvestment or pursuant to a loyalty option offer to all Shareholders):

- the number of Shares which must be issued on the exercise of an Fash Option will be increased by the number of Shares which the holder of Fash Options would have received if the holder had exercised the Option before the record date for the bonus issue; and
- no change will be made to the Exercise Price.

12. Return of capital rights

The Fash Options do not confer any right to a return of capital, whether in a winding up, upon a reduction of capital or otherwise.

13. Rights on winding up

The Fash Options have no right to participate in the surplus profits or assets of the Company upon a winding up of the Company.

14. Takeovers prohibition

The issue of Shares on exercise of the Fash Options is subject to and conditional upon the issue of the relevant Shares not resulting in any person being in breach of section 606(1) of the Corporations Act and the Company will not be required to seek the approval of its members for the purposes of item 7 of section 611 of the Corporations Act to permit the issue of any Shares on exercise of the Fash Options.

The voting form can be used to either vote directly (Section 1) OR appoint a proxy to vote on your behalf (Section 2).

SECTION 1: DIRECT VOTING

If you wish to vote directly, you should clearly mark the box in Section 1 and the boxes in Section 3 to indicate your voting instruction for each resolution. Please only mark either "for" or "against" for each resolution. Do not mark the "abstain" box if you are voting directly. If no direction is given on a resolution, or if you complete both the boxes in Section 1 and 2, your vote may be passed to the Chairman of the Meeting as your proxy. Securityholders, custodians and nominees may identify on the Voting Form the total number of votes in each of the categories "for" and "against" and their votes will be valid. The Chairman's decision as to whether a direct vote is valid is final and conclusive.

SECTION 2: APPOINTMENT OF PROXY

Indicate who you want to appoint as your Proxy.

If you wish to appoint the Chairman of the Meeting as your proxy, mark the box in Section 2. If you wish to appoint someone other than the Chairman of the Meeting as your proxy please write the full name of that individual or body corporate. To appoint a second proxy you must:

If the appointments do not specify the percentage or number of votes that each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half your votes. Fractions of votes will be disregarded.
- return both forms together in the same envelope.

SECTION 3: VOTING DIRECTIONS

To cast your direct vote or to direct your proxy how to vote, place a mark in one of the boxes opposite each resolution. All your securities will be voted in accordance with such a direction unless you indicate only a portion of securities are to be voted on any resolution by inserting the percentage or number that you wish to vote in the appropriate box or boxes. The sum of the votes cast must not exceed your voting entitlement or 100%. If you do not mark any of the boxes on a given resolution, your proxy may vote as he or she chooses (subject to any voting restrictions that apply to your proxy). If you mark more than one box on a resolution for all your securities your vote on that resolution will be invalid.

Proxy which is a Body Corporate

Where a body corporate is appointed as your proxy, the representative of that body corporate attending the Meeting must have provided an "Appointment of Corporate Representative" prior to admission.
