

TATTS LODGES APPLICATION IN THE HIGH COURT OF AUSTRALIA FOR SPECIAL LEAVE TO APPEAL VICTORIAN HEALTH BENEFIT LEVY DECISION

As previously advised, on 1 July, 2014 the Victorian Court of Appeal upheld the Victorian Treasurer's determination that Tatts must pay a Health Benefit Levy of $42,607,106 in respect of the 46 day period during which Tatts conducted its Victorian gaming operations in the financial year ended 30 June, 2013.

Tatts advises that it has today lodged an application in the High Court of Australia seeking special leave to appeal the decision of the Victorian Court of Appeal.

The additional impact on Group earnings for the year ended 30 June 2014 is estimated to be approximately $25.7 million after tax and will be disclosed as Discontinued Operations in Tatts' financial statements.
