Unicorn PFS Manager Appointed

22 September 2014

Highlights

- Colin Seaborn appointed Manager, Unicorn PFS Project.
- Outstanding credentials to lead PFS.

Colin Seaborn PhD FAusIMM, Appointed Manager, Unicorn PFS Project.

Following the demonstrated project metallurgical achievements at the Unicorn Project, and with the pace and scope of Pre-Feasibility Studies (PFS) substantially increasing, Dart Mining has moved to appoint Dr. Colin Seaborn as Manager Unicorn PFS Project.

Colin Seaborn has been instrumental in delivering experience and expertise to address the complicated Unicorn mineralogy and achieve, through application of conventional technologies, extraction of marketable concentrates of molybdenum and copper. He will continue to lead the ongoing metallurgical testwork and development of a draft process flowsheet which embraces recoveries from all mineralised zones within Unicorn.

Colin takes over the Project management role from John Eltham who has retired.

Dart Mining Chairman Bruce Paterson, in announcing Colin's appointment, said "Colin has outstanding, diverse mining experience in metallurgy, process design business analysis and project management. His grasp of the Unicorn PFS technical and commercial requirements, including those necessary to meet the funding criteria for Orion Resource Partners (Aus) Pty Ltd 2nd tranche of $4.7million, made Colin an outstanding choice to manage the Unicorn PFS."
