

ASX RELEASE

31 October 2014

WorkSafe New Zealand charges in relation to Dive School incident

Intueri Education Group Limited ("Intueri") advises it has been notified by WorkSafe New Zealand that charges have been laid in connection with the fatality at NZSCDT, Intueri's Commercial Diver Training School on 28 April 2014. Details of this incident are set out in Intueri's Prospectus dated 15 April 2014 (as amended by an instrument to amend dated 6 May 2014).

WorkSafe New Zealand has laid charges against NZ School of Outdoor Studies Limited and Commercial Diver Training Limited (subsidiaries of Intueri Education Group Limited) under the Health and Safety in Employment Act and regulations concerning prevention of hazards in the workplace and contractor certification requirements. No formal summonses have been received to date.

The Board of Intueri has taken this tragic incident very seriously. Intueri has been fully co-operative with the relevant authorities. Upon receipt of the summonses, Intueri will seek the relevant legal advice and update the market as appropriate when further information becomes available.

Ends

For queries, please contact:
Rob Facer, CEO +64 (0) 27 675 3538
Rob.Facer@intueri.co.nz

About Intueri:

Intueri Education Group (IQE) is a vocational education group listed on both the New Zealand and Australian stock exchanges. Intueri's internationally recognised schools specialise in providing industry relevant training across a number of diverse industries where there is strong demand for skilled people.