

ASX Announcement

Notice of unserved writ

Melbourne, Australia, 24 December 2014

Agenix Limited (ASX: AGX) advises that the existence of a writ issued in the Supreme Court of Victoria in March 2014 by OKS AGX Inc., has come to its attention.

The writ has not been served on Agenix but its issue in March 2014 seeks to preserve rights otherwise arguably statute barred.

The writ concerns claims arising from a share subscription agreement entered into between Agenix and OKS AGX Inc in March 2008. It makes no claims concerning the conduct of any current Agenix board member or personnel.

Agenix will vigorously defend the proceeding if it is eventually served.
