MEDIBANK ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN RESPONSIBILITY FOR PRIVATE HEALTH INSURANCE BUSINESS

Medibank Private Limited (ASX: MPL) today announced a changed structure and realigned responsibilities for the Private Health Insurance (PHI) business.

The responsibility for the PHI business (and diversified insurance products) has been transferred to David Koczkar, Chief Operating Officer.

The Telehealth businesses will move to Andrew Wilson, Executive General Manager Provider Networks and Integrated Care, bringing Telehealth together with the population health management business.

As a consequence, Laz Cotsios, Chief Customer Officer, will leave Medibank. Managing Director, George Savvides, said: "Laz has been with the Medibank team for nearly four years during which time he has made a significant contribution. We thank Laz and wish him well for the next chapter in his career."
