Executive appointment at Newcrest Mining Limited

Newcrest Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer, Sandeep Biswas, today announced the appointment of Michael Nossal as Chief Development Officer, effective 6 July 2015. He will be a member of Newcrest's Executive Committee.

Mr Biswas said "the appointment is in line with the progress being made in the execution of Newcrest's strategy. While Newcrest's current priority is to focus on driving the performance improvement of our existing assets, we are enhancing our capabilities for the next phase which is to focus on growth opportunities within our existing portfolio and other opportunities. I am very pleased to have someone of Mike's experience join the team."

Mr Nossal joins Newcrest from MMG Limited where, for the past five years, he was Executive General Manager Business Development. He has also held executive roles with En+ Group, Macquarie Bank, WMC Resources, Normandy Mining and Kenmare Resources. His experience base is across commodities including gold and base metals, and he has worked across multiple geographies including Peru, Democratic Republic of Congo, Mozambique, Russia, UK, Ireland, Turkey, Greece, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, China, USA and France.

Mr Nossal has more than 25 years' executive experience with resources companies both within Australia and internationally and has worked extensively in the gold sector. Mike holds a Master of Business Administration (Finance) and a Bachelor of Science.
