Market Update

ASIC today announced that Elmo de Alwis, former Managing Director and CEO of Sigma, and Mark Smith, former CFO of Sigma, have pleaded guilty to charges relating to falsifying the company's books. The charges follow an ASIC investigation, and relate to their conduct in accounting for four financial transactions for Sigma between June 2009 and March 2010.

Sigma fully co-operated with ASIC in relation to its investigations and confirms that no charges have been laid against the Company or current or former Executives or Non-Executive Directors of the Company. This matter will have no impact on Sigma's ongoing business.
