Money3

ASX Release

Market Update

Money3 Corporation Limited (ASX: MNY) has previously announced to the market that it was undertaking a strategic review of its business and was giving consideration to exiting some of its unsecured loans business.

Money3 advises it has recently received unsolicited interest from several parties for parts of its unsecured loans business.

Corporate advisory firm SLM Corporate has been appointed to assist the company in evaluating sale options.

The Board will keep shareholders updated with any further developments and will only transact where it is in the best interest of shareholders.
