LAW CENTRAL ANNOUNCES JOINT VENTURE WITH PANTHERCORP

ILH Group Limited (ASX: IAW) advises that its wholly owned subsidiary Law Central has formed a joint venture arrangement with PantherCorp CST (PantherCorp).

Law Central and PantherCorp provide complementary online legal services. The joint venture is set to enhance the reach of the two companies by offering cross-referral opportunities to their different client bases.

Law Central provides standard legal documents on the internet for use predominantly by accountants and financial planners. Law Central also provides a legal information service and training and education products.

PantherCorp is a Perth based company specialising in new company registrations, new business names and change of company names, formation of trusts and self-managed super funds (SMSF) as well as corporate registry and search services.

The joint venture will commence in July and operate through a separate website offering a combined suite of online products.
