

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

31 July 2014

Stirling Products Limited (Subject to Deed of Company Arrangement) ACN 077 105 429 Update on Administration

As Deed Administrator I attach the June Quarter 2014 Appendix 4C and this update to shareholders on the position of the company in progressing the Deed of Company Arrangement (DOCA) and its requotation on the ASX.

As shareholders would be aware from previous market updates Company in January of this year together with the Deed proponent entered into a binding Letter of Intent (LOI) with the owners of a new method in virus detection technology known as REVAC (Rapid Enhanced Viral Amplification Culture).

I am advised that the owners of the REVAC technology have appointed Tauro Capital to act as their advisors in the upcoming transaction.

The company is in the final stages of due diligence with independent testing and validation being conducted on the technology. The technology is also subject to a number of patents in many countries and jurisdictions which is subject to substantive drafting in the Sale and Purchase Agreement.

The company has also short listed its potential board of directors and senior management which will be appointed once the transaction is complete and funding finalised.

I am advised by the deed proponent that it is awaiting final due diligence sign off and will then provide an initial component of the agreed creditors' payment and allow the company to update its audited accounts and ready itself for relisting at the time of transaction completion.

Yours faithfully

Stirling Proctucts Limited
