LETTER TO SHAREHOLDERS

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

It has been a challenging year for the Company. External issues continued to impact the Company's current core activity of coal exploration in Mongolia. In summary, these issues were:

- Increased Mongolian country risk;
- Depressed coal markets; and
- Challenging equity markets for junior exploration companies.

The Company addressed these issues by:

- Relinquishing exploration licenses in Mongolia which were assessed as having a low probability of success; and
- Reducing costs which included the curtailment of exploration activities and the rationalisation of administration in Mongolia.

These changes contributed to the Company having a cash balance of $2.3M as of 30 June 2014 which placed it in a better position than many of its peers.

The Board is focused on the future of the Company. To this end, it has, and continues to, evaluate potential investment opportunities.

The Board remains optimistic about the future. On behalf of the Board, I thank you for maintaining your investment in the Company during this challenging period.

Yours faithfully,

P. K. Doherty

Peter Doherty
Chairman

The key responsibilities of the Board are to:

- establish and monitor the corporate strategies;

(b) Composition of the Board

The Board comprises three directors, one independent non-executive and two non-independent executive directors.

Profiles of the Directors including details of their qualifications and experience are found in section 1.2 of this report.

Directors are appointed for their industry-specific expertise and commercial acumen. The Board believes that all of the Directors can make, and do make, quality and independent judgements in the best interests of the Company. While the Chairman is non-independent, his contribution to the Company is considered important to direct the strategy of the Company as well as its management. He holds an indirect interest in the Company and it is considered that his interests are aligned with those of other shareholders.

The Directors are able to obtain independent advice at the expense of the Company.

The Board has not formally constituted an audit committee. The responsibilities normally performed by an audit committee, which includes the monitoring of the integrity of the financial statements of the Company and the review and monitoring of the Company's internal financial control system, is undertaken by the Board.

The Board has not formally constituted a nomination committee or remuneration committee. The responsibilities normally performed by these committees are undertaken by the Board.

The Board recognises the need for the size and composition of the Board to have a balance of skills and experience to allow it to make its decisions having regard to the interests of the various stakeholders in the Company. Directors must offer themselves for re-election by shareholders at least every 3 years.

The Board's performance is assessed on an informal basis given its size. It is noted that with such a small board, each director has, and is required, to actively participate in the business of the Board. On this basis, no formal evaluation process is undertaken.

(c) Ethical and Responsible Decision Making

The Board has adopted a Code of Conduct that expects all directors and employees to act with the utmost integrity and objectivity, striving at all times to enhance the reputation and performance of the Company. It includes the disclosure of conflicts of interest and the use of information not otherwise publicly known or available.

The Code of Conduct is available in the information section of the Company's website. The Code addresses the practices necessary to maintain confidence in the Company's integrity, to take account of legal obligations and expectations of stakeholders and the responsibility for reporting and investigating unethical practices.

(d) Remuneration

The Board reviews the remuneration of directors and employees. The remuneration of non-executive directors is based on an aggregate level which is not to exceed $200,000 per annum, as approved by shareholders at the 2006 Annual General Meeting.

Directors are remunerated based on a fixed monthly fee for their services.

Further details in relation to the remuneration of directors are set out in the Remuneration Report.

(e) Trading in Company Securities

The Board has adopted a Securities Trading Policy which restricts directors and employees from acting on material information until it has been released to the market and adequate time has been given for this to be reflected in the prices of the Company's securities.

The Securities Trading Policy is available in the information section of the Company's website.

(f) Continuous Disclosure and Shareholder Communication

The Continuous Disclosure and Shareholders communication policies are available in the information section of the Company's website.

(g) Risk Assessment and Management

The Board is responsible for ensuring that there are adequate policies in relation to risk oversight, management, compliance and internal control systems, but recognises that no cost effective internal control system will preclude all errors and irregularities. The Company's policies are designed to ensure that strategic, operational, legal, reputational and financial risks are identified, assessed, effectively and efficiently managed and monitored to enable achievement of the Group's business objectives.

The Company's senior management is delegated with the tasks of management of operational risk and implementation of risk management strategies. A copy of the Risk Management and Internal Compliance and Control Policy is available in the information section on the Company's website.

Management is required by the Board to report on the efficiency and effectiveness of risk management, inter alia, by benchmarking the Company's performance against industry standards. Management is required to report to the Board and confirm the effectiveness of the Company's management of its material business risks. This occurs formally during regular monthly management meetings, and directly to the Board on an ad hoc basis when required.

The Executive Directors undertake the roles of Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer and provide representation to the Board that the risk management system is operating effectively in all material aspects in relation to financial reporting risks.

At present, 33% of employees are female. There is currently no female representation on the Board, however there is 50% female representation within the finance and administration functions of the Group.

1.5 Principal Activities

The principal activities of the Group during the year were exploration for coal resources in Mongolia and evaluation of new business opportunities to maximise shareholder value.

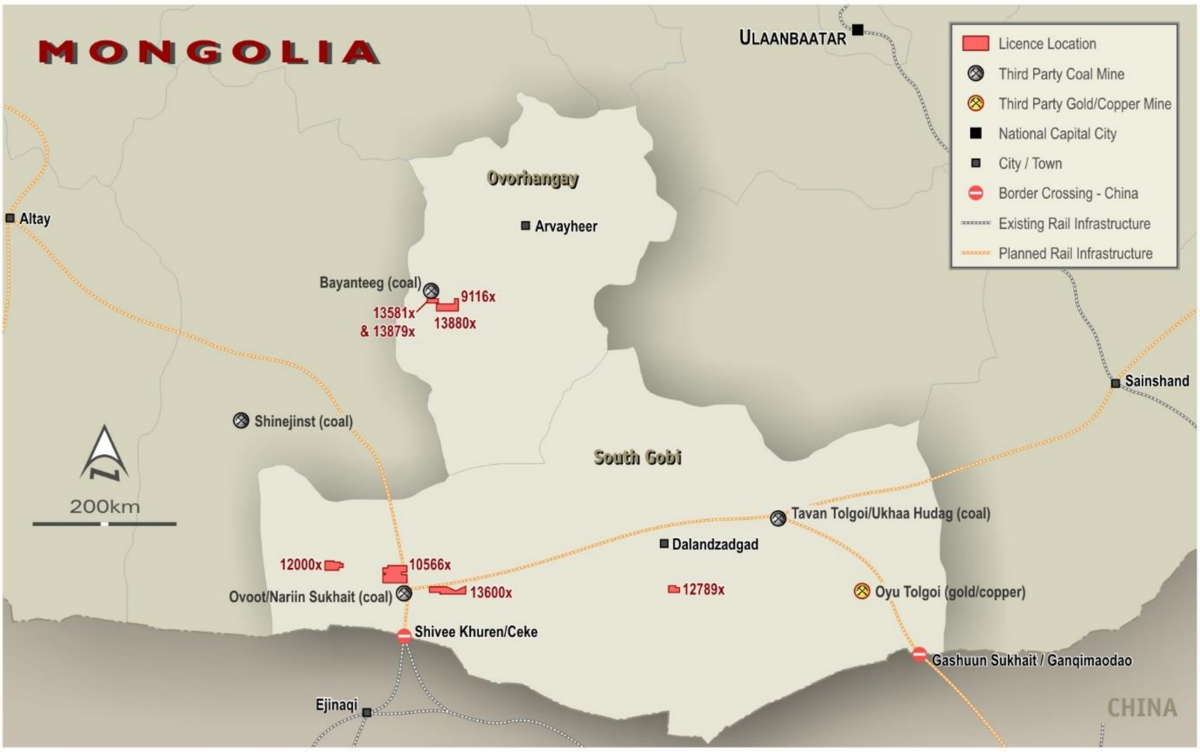
1.6 Operating and Financial Review

(a) Exploration Activity

The Board and the MCJV Management Committee reviewed the results from the exploration work undertaken during May and June 2013. As a result of this review it was decided to relinquish six of the eight exploration licences due to the assessed low probability of the presence of coal deposits which could be extracted on a commercial basis. The licenses relinquished were 12000X, 10566X, 13600X, 12789X, 9116X, and 13880X.

The Board and the MCJV Management Committee decided to retain exploration licences 13581X and 13879X because of the known resource within 13879X and the potential for a resource within 13581X.

The geological data relating to the resource within 13879X was reviewed and assessed by McElroy Bryan Geological ("MBGS") in September 2013.



Location of Exploration Licences

(b) JORC Resource

MBGS estimated an Inferred Resource of approximately 10 million tonnes of coal in accordance with the 2012 JORC Code. The details are summarised in the following table:

COAL RESOURCE ASSESSMENT (September 2013)
Mining Metho	Depth Interval	Measured		Indicated		Inferred
		Tonnes	Quality	Tonnes	Quality	Tonnes	Quality
OC	0 – 50					2.4	-

Total Resources (Rounded)		0	CV: Ash: %	0	CV: Ash: %	10	CV: Ash: %

Resources and coal quality reported at in situ moisture basis

This estimate by MBGS was significantly less than had previously been estimated (by another party).

Further information, including a copy of the Competent Person report, was included in the announcement that was made to the ASX on 23 September 2013.

There have been no subsequent changes to this resource assessment.

(c) Trinity

The Company's interest in the two retained exploration licences is held by a controlled entity, BDBL LLC ("BDBL"). BDBL is a participant in the Mongolian Coal Joint Venture (No.1) ("MCJV") with two other companies; Khan Mountain Pty Ltd ("KM") and Khan Mountain 2 Pty Ltd ("KM2"). KM and KM2 are wholly owned subsidiaries of Trinity Mongolia Pty Ltd ("Trinity"). BDBL has a 75% interest in the MCJV. KM has a 10% interest, which is free carried, and KM2 has a 15% interest in the MCJV.

In July 2013 the Company acquired a 16% interest in Trinity. This acquisition provided the Company with an interest in the owner of KM and KM2, the minority participants in the MCJV, and a seat on its board of directors.

The interest in Trinity was acquired in exchange for 852,587 shares in the Company, representing approximately 1.3% of the shares on issue on a fully diluted basis. The offer was made to non-associated shareholders on an arm's length basis.

In February 2014, the Company acquired an additional 3% share in Trinity for cash consideration of $7,999.

(d) Mongolian Administration

Due to the reduced activity by the Company in Mongolia and the focus on cost reduction, the Board decided to retrench the remaining employees in Mongolia and to close the office in Ulaanbaatar. This was completed in June 2014. Local administration activities are now being undertaken by third parties.

(e) Financial Performance

The loss after tax of the Group for the financial year was $3,883,191 (2013: $8,995,775).

The current year loss includes an impairment of exploration expenditure amounting to $2,876,944 and relates to exploration licenses 9166X, 13880X, 13789X, and 13581X. Assuming that current economic conditions prevail then it is unlikely that the accumulated costs and purchase price of these licenses will be recovered. The carrying value of capitalised exploration expenditure with respect to those licenses has been reduced to nil as at 30 June 2014.

Other expenses and employee and related expenses have significantly reduced from the prior year. For the financial year these expenses totalled $999,337 (2013: $3,544,247)

The Group's net assets decreased to $2,367,144 (2013: $6,191,555) mainly due to the impairment of exploration expenditure.

The Group's cash position as at 30 June 2014 was $2,316,680, with $1,445,530 cash at bank and $871,150 cash on deposit.

The view of the Directors is that the Company and the Group is operating as a going concern.

(f) Political and Regulatory Risks

The Group's operations are subject to various levels of government controls and regulations in the countries where it operates, including Australia and Mongolia. Current legislation is generally a matter of public record and the Group cannot predict what additional legislation or amendments may be proposed that will affect the Group's operations or when any such proposals, if enacted, might become effective. Changes in government policy or laws and regulations could adversely affect the Group's results of operations and financial condition. The Board continues to monitor any risk relating to Mongolia's regulatory and political environment.

(g) Exchange Rate and Commodity Price Risks

The Group's main operations are located in Australia and Mongolia and transactions are denominated in Australian dollars, US Dollars and Mongolian Tögrög. Fluctuations in exchange rates may have a negative impact on the financial results and could have a material adverse impact on the operations.

Commodity prices are unstable and subject to fluctuation. At this stage the projects do not generate any operating revenues, however coal prices my impact the feasibility and valuation of the projects.

1.7 Significant Changes in the State of Affairs

Other than matters referred to in this report, there were no significant changes in the state of affairs of the Group during the year.

1.8 Events Subsequent to Reporting Date

There has not arisen in the interval between the end of the financial year and the date of this report, any item, transaction or event of a material and unusual nature likely, in the opinion of the Directors of the Company, to affect significantly the operations of the Group, the results of those operations, or the state of affairs of the Group, in future financial years.

1.9 Likely Developments

The Board continues to evaluate new business opportunities to maximise shareholder value. The assets in Mongolia will continue to be evaluated and explored with the expectation that the optimum value will be realised at some stage in the future.

1.10 Dividends

No dividends were declared or paid for the previous year and the Directors recommend that no dividends be paid for the current year.

These options do not entitle the holder to participate in any share issue of the Company or other body corporate.

(c) Shares Issued on Exercise of Options

There have been no ordinary shares in the Company issued as a result of the exercise of options during the year.

1.13 Indemnification and Insurance of Directors and Officers

The Company has entered into an agreement to indemnify all Directors and Officers against any liability arising from a claim brought by a third party against the Company. The Company has paid premiums to insure each Director and Officer against liabilities for costs and expenses incurred by them in defending any legal proceedings arising out of their conduct while acting in the capacity of Director of the Company, other than conduct involving wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company. The current premium, based on an insurance period of 18 months, is $31,834 (2013: $26,116, for an insurance period of 12 months) to insure the Directors and Officers of the Company.

1.14 Remuneration Report (Audited)

This report outlines the remuneration arrangements in place for key management personnel of the Company.

(a) Principles of Remuneration

Key management personnel have the authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Group, and include directors of the Company.

The performance of the Group depends upon the quality of directors and executives. Remuneration levels for key management personnel are based upon the size and cash reserves of the Company. The role of the Remuneration Committee has been assumed by the Board, due to the size of the Company.

Remuneration packages include a fixed component with the opportunity, at the Board's discretion, to remunerate using long term incentives.

(b) Fixed Remuneration

The level of fixed remuneration is set so as to provide a base level of remuneration which is both appropriate to the position and is competitive in the market. Fixed remuneration is reviewed annually by the Board and the process consists of a review that takes into account the Group's performance, individual performance, relevant comparative remuneration in the market, together with external advice where appropriate.

(c) Performance Linked Compensation

Performance linked remuneration includes both short-term and long-term incentives and is designed to reward key management personnel for meeting or exceeding their financial and personal objectives.

The short-term incentive is an 'at risk' bonus generally provided in the form of cash. In accordance with the current strategy to conserve cash, there were no short-term incentives paid during the year.

The objective of the long-term incentives plan is to reward and retain key management personnel in a manner which aligns this element of remuneration with the creation of shareholder wealth. As such, long-term incentives are provided to key management personnel who are able to influence the generation of shareholder wealth and thus have a direct impact on the Company's performance against the relevant long term performance hurdles. The Draig Resources Limited Employee Share Option Plan is utilised to provide these incentives.

Securities issued as part of remuneration to the Company's key management personnel however do take into account the future share price performance of the Company. This is evident in the way they are structured (for example the exercise price and vesting conditions that are set), as this is seen to be a more appropriate in aligning executives' long term incentives to the generation of shareholder wealth.

The long-term incentives granted during the year are outlined in section 1.14(i).

(d) Consequences of Performance on Shareholder Wealth

In considering the Group's performance and benefits for shareholder wealth, the Board considers financial performance in the current financial year and the previous four financial years. It is noted that during 2011 the Company changed the principal activity from the provision of optometry related products in Australia to coal exploration in Mongolia.

	2014	2013	2012	2011	2010
Loss after income tax	($3,883,191)	($8,995,775)	($4,063,927)	($1,802,334)	($506,601)
Share price	$0.015	$0.036	$0.22	$2.00*	$0.16*

*Adjusted for consolidation on a 1:20 basis on 12 December 2011

Currently, the remuneration of the Group's key management personnel, including any component of the remuneration that consists of securities in the Company, is not formally linked to the prior performance of the Company. The rationale for this approach is that the Company is in the exploration phase, and it is currently not appropriate to link remuneration to factors such as profitability or share price.

(e) Non-Executive Directors Remuneration

The Board seeks to set aggregate remuneration at a level which provides the Group with the ability to attract and retain directors of a high calibre, whilst incurring a cost which is acceptable to the shareholders. Total remuneration for all non-executive directors is not to exceed $200,000 per annum, as approved by the shareholders at the 2006 Annual General Meeting. As at 30 June 2014, David Meldrum received a fixed monthly fee of $4,375 for his services. Apart from statutory superannuation, non-executive directors are not provided with retirement benefits.

(f) Executive Directors Service Contract

The Group has entered into a management services agreement for the services of Peter Doherty and Jarrod Smith. The contract is effective from 26 November 2012 until the resignation, as Director of the Company, by either Peter Doherty or Jarrod Smith. There is no notice period and there are no entitlements due on termination of the management services agreement. As at 30 June 2014, the management fee is a fixed monthly fee of $7,292 for Peter Doherty and $8,750 for Jarrod Smith.

(g) Key Management Personnel Remuneration

The Group aims to reward executives with a level and mix of compensation commensurate with their position and responsibilities within the Group so as to:

- reward executives for Group and individual performance against targets set by reference to the appropriate benchmark;
- align the interest of executives with those of shareholders;
- link reward with the strategic goals and performance of the Group; and
- ensure total remuneration is competitive by market standards.

In determining the level and makeup of key management personnel remuneration, the Board considers comparable executive roles. Remuneration may consist of fixed remuneration and long term incentives.

(h) Share Based Remuneration

The Company operates an incentive plan known as the Draig Resources Limited Employee Option Plan ("Plan") approved at the general meeting on 30 November 2011. The maximum number of options that can be granted under the Plan is determined by the Board at its discretion and in accordance with the Plan and applicable law. There is no issue price for any options granted under the Plan.

Each option is convertible to one ordinary share. The exercise price of each option is determined by the Board in its absolute discretion, provided the exercise price shall not be less than the closing price of shares sold on the ASX on the last trading day before the offer is made to eligible participants made under the Plan. No voting or dividend rights are attached to the options. There are no voting rights attached to the unissued ordinary shares.

A total of 100,000 options have vested under the Plan as at the date of this report.

During the period no securities over equity instruments issued as remuneration to key management personnel have been exercised.

1.15 Non-Audit Services

During the year KPMG, the Company's auditor, has performed certain other services in addition to the audit and review of the financial statements.

The Board has considered the non-audit services provided during the year by the auditor and is satisfied that the provision of those non-audit services during the year by the auditor is compatible with, and did not compromise, the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 for the following reasons:

- all non-audit services were subject to the corporate governance procedures adopted by the Group and have been reviewed by the Board to ensure they do not impact the integrity and objectivity of the auditor; and
- the non-audit services provided do not undermine the general principles relating to auditor independence as set out in APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, as they did not involve reviewing or auditing the auditor's own work, acting in a management or decision making capacity for the Group, acting as an advocate for the Group or jointly sharing risks and rewards.

Details of the amounts paid to the auditor of the Group, KPMG and its network firms, for audit and non-audit services provided during the year are set out in note 9 on page 30.

1.16 Auditor's Independence Declaration

The auditor's independence declaration, which forms part of this report, is included on page 50 of the consolidated financial report.

1 REPORTING ENTITY

Draig Resources Limited (the "Company") is a public company domiciled in Australia and listed on the Australian Securities Exchange (ticker: DRG). The address of the Company's registered office is Suite 22.01, 25 Bligh Street, Sydney, NSW, 2000. The consolidated financial report of the Company for the financial year ended 30 June 2014 comprises the Company and its subsidiaries; Draig Investments (Singapore) Pte. Ltd, BDBL LLC and Draig Resources LLC (together referred to as the "Group"). The Group is a for-profit entity and is primarily involved in coal exploration.

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION

2.1 Statement of Compliance

The consolidated financial statements are general purpose financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards (AASBs) adopted by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) and the Corporations Act 2001. The consolidated financial statements comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) adopted by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

The consolidated financial statements were authorised for issue by the Board of Directors on 10 September 2014.

2.2 Basis of Measurement

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for share based payment transactions which are measured at fair value. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis.

2.3 Functional and Presentation Currency

These consolidated financial statements are presented in Australian dollars, which is the Company's functional currency.

2.4 Use of Estimates and Judgements

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing this Annual Report, the significant judgements made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty are detailed below.

(a) Exploration and Evaluation Expenditure

Determining the recoverability of exploration and evaluation expenditure capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy requires estimates and assumptions as to future events and circumstances, in particular, whether successful development and commercial exploitation, or alternatively sale, of the respective areas of interest will be achieved. Critical to this assessment is estimates and assumptions as to the presence of mineral reserves, timing of expected cash flows, exchange rates, commodity prices and future capital requirements. Changes in these estimates and assumptions as new information about the presence or recoverability of a mineral reserve becomes available, may impact the assessment of the recoverable amount of exploration and evaluation assets. If, after having capitalised the expenditure a judgement is made that recovery of the expenditure is unlikely, an impairment loss is recorded in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income. The carrying amounts of exploration and evaluation assets are set out in note 17.

(b) Share Based Transactions

The Group measures the cost of equity-settled transactions with employees by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined by an external valuer by using either a Black Scholes option pricing model, hybrid Monte-Carlo model or the binomial option pricing model, using the assumptions detailed in note18.

3 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements, and have been applied consistently by Group entities.

3.1 Basis of Consolidation

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Company. Control exists when the Company has the power to govern the financial and operating policies of an entity so as to obtain benefits from its activities. In assessing control, potential voting rights that presently are exercisable are taken into account. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date control commences until the date the control ceases. In the Company's financial statements, investments in subsidiaries are carried at cost.

(b) Transactions Eliminated on Consolidation

Unrealised gains and losses and inter-entity balances resulting from transactions with or between subsidiaries are eliminated in full on consolidation.

3.2 Foreign Currency

(a) Foreign Currency Transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated to the respective functional currencies of Group entities at exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the reporting date are retranslated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at that date. The foreign currency gain or loss on monetary items is the difference between amortised cost in the functional currency at the beginning of the period, adjusted for effective interest and payments during the period, and the amortised cost in foreign currency translated at the exchange rate at the end of the year.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are measured at fair value are retranslated to the functional currency at the exchange rate at the date that the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items in a foreign currency that are measured in terms of historical cost are translated using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Foreign currency differences arising on retranslation are recognised in profit or loss.

(b) Foreign Operations

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated to Australian dollars at exchange rates at the reporting date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated to Australian dollars at exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Foreign currency differences are recognised in other comprehensive income, and presented in the foreign currency translation reserve (translation reserve) in equity.

When the settlement of a monetary item receivable from or payable to a foreign operation is neither planned nor likely in the foreseeable future, foreign exchange gains and losses arising from such a monetary item are considered to form part of a net investment in a foreign operation and are recognised in other comprehensive income, and are presented within equity in the translation reserve in equity.

3.3 Financial Instruments

(a) Non-Derivative Financial Instruments

A financial asset is classified as at fair value through profit and loss if it is classified as held-for-trading or is designated as such on initial recognition. Directly attributable transaction costs are recognised in profit or loss as incurred. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value and changes therein, including any dividend income, are recognised in profit or loss.

Held to maturity assets are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, they are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Non-derivative financial liabilities are initially recognised at fair value less any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, these liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(i) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash balances and call deposits with maturities of three months or less from the acquisition date that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in their fair value, and are used by the Group in the management of its short-term commitments.

(ii) Loans and receivables

These assets are initially recognised at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, they are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(iii) Trade and Other Payables

The Group recognises a liability initially on the trade date, which is the date that the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. The Group derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire.

(b) Share Capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to issue of ordinary shares and share options are recognised as a deduction from equity, net of any related income tax benefit.

3.4 Property, Plant and Equipment

(a) Recognition and Measurement

Items of property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Costs include expenditures that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset.

(b) Subsequent Costs

Subsequent expenditure is only capitalised when it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Group. Ongoing repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

(c) Depreciation

Depreciation is recognised in profit or loss on a straight line basis over the estimated useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment.

The expected useful lives in the current and comparative period are as follows:

Fixtures and fittings	5 years
Computer equipment	2 – 3 years

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reassessed at the reporting date.

3.5 Impairment

(a) Financial Assets

A financial asset is assessed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any objective evidence that it is impaired. A financial asset is considered to be impaired if objective evidence indicates that one or more events have had a negative effect on the estimated future cash flows of that asset.

An impairment loss in respect of a financial asset measured at amortised cost is calculated as the difference between its carrying amount and the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at the original effective interest rate.

Individually significant financial assets are tested for impairment on an individual basis. The remaining financial assets are assessed collectively in groups that share similar credit risk characteristics.

All impairment losses are recognised in profit or loss. An impairment loss is reversed if the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognised.

(b) Calculation of Recoverable Amount

The recoverable amount of the Group's receivables carried at amortised cost is calculated as the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate (i.e. the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition of these financial assets). Receivables with a short duration are not discounted. Impairment of receivables is not recognised until objective evidence is available that a loss event has occurred. Significant receivables are individually assessed for impairment.

The recoverable amount of other assets is the greater of their fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

(c) Non-Financial Assets

The carrying amounts of the Group's non-financial assets are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. For goodwill and intangible assets that have indefinite lives or which are not yet available for sale, the recoverable amount is estimated at each reporting date.

An impairment loss is recognised if the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. A cash-generating unit is the smallest identifiable asset group that generates cash flows which are independent from other assets and groups. Impairment losses are recognised in the income statement. Impairment losses recognised in respect of cash-generating units are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the units and then to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the unit (group of units) on a pro rata basis.

3.6 Employee Benefits

(a) Wages and Salaries

Provision is made for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave and long service leave when it is probable that settlement will be required and the benefit is capable of being measured reliably.

Provisions made in respect of wages and salaries and annual leave expected to be settled within 12 months are measured at nominal values based on expected rates of pay.

(b) Termination Benefits

Termination benefits are recognised as an expense when the Group is committed demonstrably, without realistic possibility of withdrawal, to a formal detailed plan to terminate employment before the normal retirement date. If benefits are payable more than 12 months after the reporting date then they are discounted to their present value.

(c) Share-Based Payments

The grant-date fair value of share-based payment awards granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees become unconditionally entitled to the awards. The amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of awards for which the related service and non-market performance conditions are expected to be met, such that the amount ultimately recognised as an expense is based on the number of awards that meet the related service and non-market performance conditions at the vesting date. For share-based payment awards with non-vesting conditions, the grant-date fair value of the share-based payment is measured to reflect such conditions and there is no true-up for differences between expected and actual outcomes.

Share-based remuneration benefits are provided to employees via the Company's Incentive Plan, known as the Draig Resources Employee Option Plan ("Plan"). Details of options issued during the year can be found in section 18.3 on page 35.

The cost of these share-based payment transactions is measured by reference to the fair value at the date at which they are granted. The fair value is determined using either a Black-Scholes option pricing model, a hybrid Monte-Carlo model or the binomial option pricing model.

In valuing share-based payment transactions, no account is taken of any performance conditions, other than conditions linked to the price of the shares of the Company ('market conditions').

The cost of share-based payment transactions is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period in which the performance conditions are fulfilled, ending on the date on which the relevant employees are fully entitled to the award ('vesting date').

The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until vesting date reflects:

- the extent to which the vesting period has expired; and

- the number of awards that, in the opinion of the Directors, will ultimately vest.

This opinion is formed using the best available information at the date of the statement of financial position. No adjustment is made for the likelihood of market performance conditions being met as the effect of these conditions is included in the determination of fair value at grant date.

No expense is recognised for awards that do not ultimately vest, except for awards where vesting is conditional upon a market condition.

Where the terms of an equity-settled award are modified, as a minimum an expense is recognised as if the terms had not been modified. In addition, an expense is recognised for any increase in the value of the transaction as a result of the modification, as measured at the date of modification.

Where an equity-settled award is cancelled, it is treated as if it had vested on the date of cancellation and any expense not yet recognised for the award is recognised immediately. However, if a new award is substituted for the cancelled award, and designated as a replacement award on the date that it is granted, the cancelled and new award are treated as if they were a modification of the original award, as described in the previous paragraph.

The dilutive effect, if any, of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of earnings per share.

3.7 Revenue

Revenues are recognised and measured at the fair value of the consideration received net of the amount of discounts and goods and services tax (GST) payable to the taxation authority.

3.8 Finance Income

Finance income comprises interest income on funds invested and is recognised as it accrues.

Foreign currency gains and losses on financial assets are reported on a net basis as either financial income or finance cost depending on whether foreign currency movements are in a net gain or net loss position.

3.9 Tax

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current tax and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to a business combination, or items recognised directly in equity or in other comprehensive income.

(a) Current Tax

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

(b) Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes.

Deferred tax is not recognised for the temporary differences in the initial recognition of goodwill, the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit, and differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that they probably will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates that are expected to be applied to the temporary differences when they reverse, based on the laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

A deferred tax asset is recognised for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences, to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilised. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised.

3.10 Goods and Services Tax

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Tax Office (ATO). In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense.

Receivables and payables are stated with the amount of GST included. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as a current asset or liability in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are included in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are classified as operating cash flows.

3.11 Segment Reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner that is consistent with the internal reporting to the chief operating decision maker (CODM), which has been identified by the Company as the Board of Directors.

An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the Group's other components.

3.12 Exploration and Evaluation Expenditure

Exploration and evaluation assets are only recognised if the rights to the area of interest are current and either: the expenditures are expected to be recouped through successful development and exploitation of the area of interest; or activities in the area of interest have not at the reporting date reached a stage which permits a reasonable assessment of the existence or otherwise of economically recoverable reserves and active and significant operations in, or in relation to, the area of interest are continuing.

Costs incurred before the Group has obtained the legal rights to explore an area are recognised in the profit or loss.

Exploration and evaluation assets are assessed for impairment if sufficient data exists to determine technical feasibility and commercial viability or facts and circumstances suggest that the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount.

Exploration and evaluation assets are tested for impairment when any of the following facts and circumstances exist:

- the period for which the Group has the right to explore in the specific area has expired during the period or will expire in the near future, and is not expected to be renewed;

- substantive expenditure on further exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources in the specific area is neither budgeted nor planned;

- exploration for and evaluation of mineral resources in the specific area have not led to the discovery of commercially viable quantities of mineral resources and the entity has decided to discontinue such activities in the specific area; or

- sufficient data exists to indicate that, although a development in the specific area is likely to proceed, the carrying amount of the exploration and evaluation asset is unlikely to be recovered in full from successful development or by sale.

For the purposes of impairment testing, exploration and evaluation assets are allocated to cash generating units (CGUs) to which the exploration activity relates. The CGU shall not be larger than the area of interest.

Once technical feasibility and commercial viability of the extraction of mineral resources in an area of interest are demonstrable, exploration and evaluation assets attributable to that area of interest are first tested for impairment and then reclassified to mine property assets within property, plant and equipment.

In the event that an area of interest is abandoned or the Board consider the exploration and evaluation assets attributable to the area of interest to be of reduced value, the exploration and evaluation assets are impaired in the period in which assessment is made. Each area of interest is reviewed at each reporting period and accumulated costs are written off to the extent that they will not be recoverable in the future.

3.13 Changes in Accounting Policies

The Group has adopted the following new standards and amendments to standards, including any consequential amendments to other standards, with a date of initial application of 1 July 2013

- AASB 10 Consolidated Financial Statements (2011)

- credit risk;
- liquidity risk; and
- market risk.

This note presents information about the Group's exposure to each of the above risks, the Group's objectives, policies and processes for measuring and managing risk, and the Group's management of capital.

21.2 Risk Management Framework

The Company's Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Group's risk management framework.

The Group's principal financial instruments comprise cash and short-term deposits. The Group has various other financial instruments such as trade debtors and trade creditors, which arise directly from its operations. It is, and has been throughout the period under review, the Group's policy that no trading in financial instruments shall be undertaken.

21.3 Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Group if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Group's receivables and term deposits.

The Group holds the majority of its cash and cash equivalents with banks and financial institution counterparties with acceptable credit ratings. As part of managing its credit risk on cash and cash equivalents, the majority of funds are held in Australian banks, which have the higher credit rating amongst the banks and financial institution counterparties used, and is transferred as needed to the Mongolian banks to meet operational costs of the following month.

The carrying amount of financial assets represents the maximum credit exposure. The maximum credit exposure to credit risk at the end of the reporting period was as follows:

		Carrying Amount
	Note	2014 $	2013 $
Financial Assets:
Cash and cash equivalents	11	2,316,680	1,347,462

21.4 Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Group's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Group's reputation.

The following are contractual maturities of the Group financial liabilities, including estimated interest payments and excluding the impact of netting arrangements:

	Note	Carrying Amount $	Contractual Cash Flows $	6 Months or less $
2014
Trade and other payables	16	29,901	(29,901)	(29,901)

The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising the return.

(a) Currency Risk

The Group is not exposed to significant foreign currency risk on transactions that are denominated in a currency other than the respective functional currencies of the group entities; the Australian Dollar (AUD), United States Dollar (USD) and Mongolian Tögrög (MNT)

(b) Interest Rate Risk

The Group's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates relates primarily to the Group's cash. Cash includes funds held in term deposits and cheque accounts during the year, which earned variable interest at rates ranging between 2.50 % to 4.2% (2013: 3.75% to 4.9%), depending on the bank account type and account balances.

Variable rate financial assets	1,115,253	2,624,166

A change of 100 basis points in the interest rates at the end of the reporting period would have increased (decreased) profit and loss by the amounts shown below. The analysis assumes that all other variables remain constant. This analysis is performed on the same basis for 2013.

	2014 $	2013 $
100bp increase	11,152	26,242
100bp decrease	(11,152)	(26,242)

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We performed the procedures to assess whether in all material respects the financial report presents fairly, in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 and Australian Accounting Standards, a true and fair view which is consistent with our understanding of the Group's financial position and of its performance.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.
