New Adecco contract reinforces vision and global presence

Highlights:

- Global recruiter Adecco agrees new framework agreement with JXT
- Demonstrates demand for JXT product and validity of Nvoi's global strategy

Nvoi Ltd (ASX: NVO) is pleased to announce it has agreed a new framework agreement with Adecco Group for the provision of recruitment website management and support services. Adecco is one of the world's largest staffing firms and a Fortune Global 500 company. The agreement will see Nvoi's JXT business service Adecco's global markets, including Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan, Malaysia, China and South Korea.

Nvoi CEO Steve Butler said, "Adecco is a global leader in the staffing industry and now a cornerstone partner in our business."

"This agreement demonstrates the demand for our product and validates our ability to serve the largest staffing agencies in the world."

Adecco Head of Marketing & Communications Lucy Sharp said, "We have been impressed with the Nvoi team's vision for the JXT product and look forward to working with them to bring an enhanced experience to our candidates."

Mr Butler said, "A strong pipeline of major new and renewing contracts is on the short-term horizon as we continue to build our global business, in parallel with continued product development work on a simplified SMB version of the JXT offering with a self-serve "Shopify" approach to scale."

The framework agreement is for a 12 month term at a fixed fee for the agreed services with potential for additional services outside of the agreement scope. The agreement is otherwise on terms and conditions customary for a framework SAAS agreement, including provisions for confidentiality, IP protection, security requirements and data protection, privacy and service levels.

This announcement was approved for release to ASX by Nvoi's Board of Directors.
