

September 2020 Quarterly Update

HIGHLIGHTS

- Record quarterly cash receipts of over $1 million
- Strategic product development positions Nvoi for growth
- Post-JXT acquisition operational restructure complete

Nvoi Ltd (ASX:NVO) (Nvoi or Company) has released its Appendix 4C Quarterly Report for the three month period ending 30 September 2020 and is pleased to provide the following update on its activities.

EVENTS DURING THE QUARTER

Nvoi continues its strategy with an increased focus on expanding the JXT offering to handle the entire recruitment lifecycle for global staffing companies and internal recruitment teams.

Throughout the quarter, a combination of consolidating Nvoi's technologies (Nvoi Direct, Workconex and JXT) and the CareerOne partnership has fast-tracked the development of Nvoi's new product, 'ApplyFlow'. ApplyFlow leverages years of product development, industry knowledge and data into one new system, that delivers a much-needed overhaul to the recruitment process as we know it.

On 27 August 2020, Nvoi appointed Steve Butler as new Chief Executive Officer of the Nvoi group. In his previous position as Chief Product Officer, Steve developed the product roadmap and growth strategy aligned with the new developments.

Record cash receipts

Despite the current difficult macro-economic environment as a consequence of COVID-19, cash receipts for the quarter were in excess of $1 million, up from $471,000 last quarter, with the Company achieving close to operating breakeven for the month of September.

Product consolidation & vertical expansion

Existing Nvoi technologies, the acquisition of JXT, and partnership with CareerOne provided a springboard to expedite product development towards a roadmap that delivers a cohesive experience throughout the entire recruitment flow.

Product development throughout the quarter has focused on expanding the original JXT offering beyond recruitment websites and job boards. The new product, 'ApplyFlow', bundles everything needed to run a recruitment agency in one seamless platform and sees Nvoi enter into new segments of recruitment technology and a significantly larger serviceable available market.

Development of the new platform and its new verticals is ahead of schedule and expected to expand monthly recurring revenue with existing clients, increase average contract values and service customers with better unit economics and a 'Shopify' approach to scale.

JXT operational restructure complete

Nvoi has completed its post-JXT acquisition operational restructure as announced to ASX on 27 August 2020, recognising several immediate cost benefits amounting to approximately $2 million in annualised cost savings.

Improved customer service, product features and planned rollout for the new product has improved customer confidence – all key to retaining recurring revenue and client renewals during the quarter.

Summary of expenditure for the quarter and related party payments

During the quarter, the group's total operating expenses were approximately $2.1 million, comprised of product development ($300,000), marketing ($49,000), personnel and restructuring costs ($1.03 million), and finance and administration costs ($627,000).

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 4.7C.3, payments to related parties and their associates outlined in the Company's Appendix 4C for the quarter relate to salary and superannuation payments to Directors, legal fees paid to Milcor Legal (a company associated with Mr Papadopoulos) for legal services and payments to Superhero Holdings Pty Ltd (a company associated with Mr Winters) for the purchase of second-hand office equipment for Nvoi's offices .

The Company's cash balance as at 30 September 2020 was approximately $4.376 million.

EVENTS SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE QUARTER

New Contracts and strong contract pipeline with momentum building

Subsequent to the end of the quarter JXT entered into a new 12-month contract with Adecco, one of the world's largest staffing firms and a Fortune Global 500 company, for the provision of website management and support services to Adecco's global markets, including Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan, Malaysia, China and South Korea.

Engagement with new and existing clients, from both recruitment agencies and corporate recruitment teams has continued in multiple geographies. A strong pipeline of major new and renewing contracts is on the short-term horizon.

Momentum is increasing with a clear demand for the new 'ApplyFlow' platform. This momentum will be fuelled further as the group gears up for growth and implements its go-to-market strategy.

Proposed Name Change and New Branding

In October 2020 the Company released a notice of meeting for its 2020 AGM, convened for 12 November 2020. At the meeting, Nvoi will seek approval of shareholders for the Company to change its name to 'ApplyFlow Limited'.

The change is part of the Company's broader strategy to consolidate its brands and make its mission very clear to customers, shareholders and employees.

Clients approaching go-live date on the new 'ApplyFlow' platform

Onboarding clients to the new technology has commenced ahead of scheduled with go-live dates scheduled for the end of October 2020. The new technology replaces significant infrastructure costs and removes reliance on third-party services.

Work has continued on development of the 'ApplyFlow' platform and this is expected to continue into the next quarter.

Migration of existing clients on to the new ApplyFlow platform and adoption of new clients is expected to drive improved monthly recurring revenue as well as a reduced cost base due to operational efficiencies.

This announcement was approved for release to ASX by Nvoi's Board of Directors.
