If the Shortfall has not been delivered (or cash settled) within a further 6 months (i.e. 9 months from the initial deferral) then an event of default shall be taken to have occurred; or
 - If there is any failure to deliver (or cash settle) in any month within the first 6 months after Metals Sales Commencement (other than in the circumstances set out above), the amount of Shortfall plus accrued interest shall be added to the delivery obligations for the following month and no event of default shall occur unless there is a Shortfall at the end of such 6 month period.

If the Initial Payment has been made and/or any portion of the Deposit Amount made, the Seller is to deliver gold in proportion to the Deposit Amount received.
- The Seller and Guarantor will indemnify the Purchaser for all loss that the Purchaser suffers or incurs as a result of a Seller Event of Default, or the Purchaser exercising its rights and powers as a result of a Seller Event of Default.
