ABOUT DELECTA

On 24 June 2020, the Company announced it had acquired 60% of the shares in Sunrise Minerals Inc, a Colorado, US based company that holds the REX Uranium-Vanadium Project (Project). The Project consists of 256 contiguous BLM claims covering 2,072ha in Colorado, USA. Uranium mineralisation is confirmed, with four historic uranium mines within the Project area.

The Project is located in Montrose County, Colorado. The claims are readily accessible via surfaced and county-maintained gravel roads from either Moab or Monticello, a distance of approximately 145 kms. The Project has not been subject to any recent exploration.
