Corporate Governance Statement

This Corporate Governance Statement details (amongst other matters) the Company's compliance the fourth edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations) as at 30 June 2021. The Recommendations are not mandatory. However, the Recommendations that the Company currently does not follow have been identified and the Company provides the following reasons for not following them, along with details of what (if any) alternative governance practices the Company has adopted instead of those Recommendations.

The Board of the Company currently has in place corporate governance policies and charters which have been posted on the Company's website at <https://buddy.com/asx-announcements/>.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES AND RECOMMENDATIONS		COMPLY (Yes/No)	EXPLANATION
1.	Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	Companies should have and disclose a board charter: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The respective roles and responsibilities of the board of directors ( Board ) and management are defined under the Board Charter. There is a clear delineation between the Board's responsibility for the Company's strategy and activities, and the day-to-day management of operations conferred upon officers of the Company.
1.2	Companies should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes	The process for selection, appointment, and re-appointment of directors is detailed in the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter states that shareholders are required to be provided with all material information in the Committee's possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director including, biographical details, qualifications, a statement as to whether the Board supports the nomination of the director and the degree of independence of the director and, details of any existing directorships held.

1.3	Companies should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Detailed in the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter. The Company requires each director and senior executive to execute a written agreement setting out the terms of their appointment.
1.4	The company secretary should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The company secretary reports directly to the chair of the Board. The role of the company secretary is outlined in the Board Charter.
1.5	Companies should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executive and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (1) The measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (2) The entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) Either: A. The respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); and B. If the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined and	Partial compliance	The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy. The Diversity Policy requires the Board, subject to the size and operations of the Company, to establish measurable objectives to assist the Company to achieve gender diversity and to assess the Company's progress in achieving these objectives. The Diversity Policy is available on the Company's website. However, the Company aims to adopt measurable objectives to achieve gender diversity and will provide updates on its progress towards achieving its diversity objectives including the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "Senior executive") in its future annual reports. As at the date of this report, the Company has the following proportion of women appointed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• to the Board – 0%</li> <li>• to senior executive positions – 0%</li> <li>• to the organisation as a whole – 27%</li> </ul>

	published in that Act. If the Company was in the S&amp;P/ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.
1.6	Companies should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes/Partial Compliance	Under the Board Charter, the Board, at least once per year, reviews and evaluates the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual directors against the relevant charters, corporate governance policies, and agreed goals and objectives (as applicable). Given recent changes to the Company's Board, the Board has not had the opportunity to undertake a performance evaluation in accordance with that process during or in respect of the period ending 30 June 2021. The Board will ensure that an evaluation of the Board, its committees and individual directors is undertaken in accordance with the Board Charter in future years. The Company will provide details as to its compliance with these recommendations in its future annual reports.
1.7	Companies should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes/Partial Compliance	Under the Board Charter, the Board is responsible for reviewing and approving the performance of the members of the executive leadership team. Given recent changes to the Company's Board, the Board has not had the opportunity to undertake a performance evaluation in accordance with that process during or in respect of the period ending 30 June 2021. The Board will ensure that an evaluation of the members of its executive leadership team is undertaken in accordance with the Board Charter in future years and will make disclosure as to whether the performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period.

2.	Structure the board to add value
2.1	The board should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	No	A dedicated Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter has been adopted by the Board, which established a Remuneration and Nomination Committee in prior years. The Committee should consist of a minimum of three directors, a majority of whom should, where practicable, be independent directors and, where practicable, be chaired by an independent director who is not Chair of the Board. From 1 July 2020 to the date of recent Board changes, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee comprised of three non-executive member and the majority were independent. The Committee met 3 times in the period to 30 June 2021. However, following the recent changes to the Company's Board, the Board has not had the opportunity to appoint new members, as there are currently only two non-executive directors on the board. The Board will, as soon as practicable, appoint new non-executives and establish the Remuneration and Nomination Committee or update the Corporate Governance to reduce the membership of the Committee to two directors. In the meantime, nominations of new Directors are considered by the full Board. If any vacancies arise on the Board, all Directors are involved in the search and recruitment of a replacement. The Board has taken a view that the full Board will hold special meetings or sessions as and when required. The Board is confident that this process for selection, including undertaking appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to Shareholders a candidate for election is stringent and full details of all Directors are provided to Shareholders in the annual report and on the Company's website.
2.2	Companies should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	No	The Company is responsible for regularly reviewing the size, composition and skills of the Board to ensure that the Board is able to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively and to identify any gaps in the skills or experience of the Board.

			One of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee's responsibilities detailed in the Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter is to create and maintain a skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership. However, as noted above, the Board has not had the opportunity as at 30 June 2021 to re-establish a Remuneration and Nomination Committee and consequently has not created a board skills matrix, but will seek to do so as soon as practicable. The Company will disclose details of any board skills matrix it adopts.
2.3	Companies should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	The Company assesses the independence of its directors against the requirements for independence in the Board Charter which reflect the independence criteria detailed in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations. Director independence is initially assessed upon each director's appointment and reviewed each year, or as required when a new personal interest or conflict of interest is disclosed. Directors disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest on an ongoing basis.
2.4	A majority of the board should be independent directors.	No	The Board Charter states that, where practical, the majority of the Board should be comprised of independent directors. However, given recent changes to the Company's Board, a majority of the Board are not independent directors as at 30 June 2021. The Company is in the process of identifying additional board members to add to the independence of the Board.

2.5	The chair of the board should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO.	Yes	The Board has appointed a chair, Mr Richard Borenstein, who is an independent Director as outlined in the Board Charter.
2.6	Companies should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	Upon appointment, new Directors are subject to relevant induction procedures to provide the incoming individual with sufficient knowledge of the entity and its operating environment to enable them to fulfil their role effectively.
3	Act ethically and responsibly
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	No	The Board when it considers the Company to be of an appropriate size will articulate and disclose its values that complies with Recommendation 3.1.
3.2	Companies should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) have and disclose a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and</li> <li>(b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that code.</li> </ul>	Yes	The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct which applies to all directors, officers and employees of the Company as well as a Securities Trading Policy. Any material breaches are disclosed to the Board by a Director or the Company Secretary.
3.3	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) have and disclose a whistle blower policy; and</li> <li>(b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material incidents reported under that policy.</li> </ul>	Yes	The Company has a whistle blower policy to encourage persons to raise any concerns or report instances of any potential breach of law, any violation of the Code of Conduct or any other legal or ethical concern without fear of detriment.  The policy has a Whistle Blower Protection Officer appointed by the Board who reports to the CEO.
3.4	A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy; and</li> </ul>	Yes	The Company has an anti-bribery and anti-corruption policy which sets out the responsibilities in observing and upholding the Company's zero-tolerance approve to bribery and corruption.

	(b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.		The policy ensures that the Board will be informed of any material breaches.
4	Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting
4.1	The board should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	No	A dedicated Risk and Audit Committee Charter has been adopted by the Board, which established a Risk and Audit Committee in prior years. The Committee should consist of a minimum of three directors, all of whom shall, where practicable, be non-executive directors and, a majority of whom should, where practicable, be independent directors. The Risk and Audit Committee Chair will be, where practicable, an independent non-executive director who is not Chair of the Board. From 1 July 2020 to the date of recent Board changes, the Risk and Audit Committee Charter comprised of three non-executive member and the majority were independent. The Committee met 3 times in the period to 30 June 2021. However, following the recent changes to the Company's Board, the Board has not had the opportunity to appoint new Committee members, as there are currently only two non-executive directors on the board. The Board will, as soon as practicable, appoint new non-executives and establish the Remuneration and Nomination Committee or update the Corporate Governance to reduce the membership of the Committee to two directors. In the meantime, the Fully Board currently operates under the adopted Risk and Audit Committee, which is available for review on the Company's website and carries out the functions delegated under that charter. The full Board is currently considered to be able to meet the objectives of the best practice recommendations and discharge its duties in this area. The Board believes that the individuals on the Board can make, and do make, quality and information judgements in the best interests of the Company on all relevant issues.

			External audit recommendations, internal control matters and any other matters that arise from half yearly reviews and the annual statutory audit will be discussed directly between the Board and the external auditor. The Board encourages contact between the non-executive Directors and the Company's external auditors, independently of executive management.
4.2	The board should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	Prior to the Board approving the Company's financial statements, the Board receives from the CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity, and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
