ASX ANNOUNCEMENT | ASX : LTR

Minerals 260 Set to List on ASX Tomorrow

KEY POINTS

- Minerals 260 Limited (Minerals 260) has been admitted to the ASX.
- Official quotation of Minerals 260 securities to commence at 10:00 AM AWST, Tuesday 12 October 2021.
- ATO Class Ruling to be finalised and subsequently announced to the ASX when completed.

Further to its announcement of 5 October 2021, Liontown Resources Limited (ASX: LTR) ("Liontown" or the "Company") is pleased to provide an update on the demerger and ASX listing of Minerals 260 Limited ("Minerals 260"), which holds the Moora and Koojan JV Projects in Western Australia.

Following the completion of its heavily oversubscribed $30 million Initial Public Offering ("IPO"), Minerals 260 was admitted on the official ASX list on the 8 October 2021 with the ASX code 'MI6'. Trading is scheduled to commence on the ASX at 10:00 AM AWST on Tuesday,12 October 2021.

The ATO Class Ruling outlining the implications for certain shareholders as a result of the recent demerger, is expected to be finalised over the next few weeks and shareholders will be advised in due course.

Commenting on the Minerals 260 demerger and IPO, Liontown Managing Director, Tony Ottaviano, said: "It's tremendous to see the successful conclusion of the Minerals 260 demerger and the launch of an exciting new, well-funded exploration company on the ASX. In addition to their exposure to the world-class Kathleen Valley Lithium-Tantalum Project in WA, Liontown shareholders are also now the owners of a company with an outstanding project portfolio of Au-PGE-Ni-Cu assets in the Julimar Region, backed by a strong management team with a proven discovery track record and the funding to accelerate exploration success. I look forward to monitoring the progress that Minerals 260 makes, while Liontown continues to advance towards its objective of becoming a world-class battery materials producer."

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Managing Director.
