

Retraction of Production Target

Surefire Resources NL (ASX:SRN) (Surefire or the Company) released an Investor Presentation Perenjori Premium Grade Iron Project yesterday, 14 February 2022.

Following discussions with the ASX, the Company retracts the information contained in Slides 10, 11 and 12 of that presentation that references any information in relation to production targets.

The statements made in the original release were not consistent with the information required to be reported under ASX Listing Rules 5.16 and 5.17.

As a consequence of the retraction, the Company advises that investors should not rely on the retracted production targets for their investment decisions.

This release has been authorised by Surefire Resources NL Managing Director.
