AVR MERGER PROPOSAL UPDATE

Brisbane, Australia and Minneapolis, USA. Anteris Technologies Ltd (ASX: AVR) (Anteris or the Company) declines the proposal to merge with NASDAQ-listed special purpose acquisition company Medicus Sciences Acquisition Corp (MSAC).

Despite some advantages, such as relatively expeditious access to US capital markets, the Company's Board concluded the timing of the proposal was not in shareholders nor the Company's best interest at this point.

The Company appreciates its shareholders' support and remains focused on achieving its objectives throughout 2022.

"MSAC's proposal underscores the high interest in the Company's game-changing DurAVR™ THV potential, not only among US TAVR interventionist fraternity but, also, in key sections of US capital markets," Anteris CEO Wayne Paterson said.
