Entitlement Issue

The Company is seeking to raise up to $84.5 million via a Non-Renounceable Entitlement Issue on the basis of one (1) new share for every one (1) New Share held by Eligible Shareholders on the Record Date at an issue price of $0.40 per New Share, with a minimum subscription to the offers under the Prospectus of $50.0 million.

The issue price of $0.40 per New Share represents a discount to the following closing prices prior to the trading halt on 6 May 2022 of:

- 29.2% to the last price of $0.565;
- 42.4% discount to the 10-day volume weighted average price of $0.695; and
- 46.3% discount to the 30-day volume weighted average price of $0.745.

Subscribers under the Offer will also be issued with one (1) New Option for every one (1) New Share subscribed for and issued, exercisable at $0.60 and expiring on 31 December 2024. Eligible Shareholders

Shareholders with registered addresses inside Australia, New Zealand, United Kingdom, Germany, Luxembourg and Switzerland will be entitled to participate in the Entitlement Issue.

Additional New Shares Offer and Shortfall Offer

Eligible Shareholders may, in addition to their Entitlement, apply for additional new shares (Additional New Shares Offer).

Any New Shares not that are not taken up under the Entitlement Issue or the Additional New Shares Offer by the closing date will become available under the shortfall offer made pursuant to the Prospectus (Shortfall Shares).

The issue and allotment of Shortfall Shares (if any) is at the discretion of the Directors. The Company retains the flexibility to scale back applications for Shortfall Shares at its discretion. However, the Company will not place any Shortfall Shares to a person to the extent that such issue would (based on the current substantial shareholder notices lodged with the ASX) cause a person (or any associate of that person) to contravene section 606 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act).
