

Partial Camp Disposal Yields $737,500 Cash Proceeds

HIGHLIGHTS

- Sale of surplus mine camp capacity yields $737,500 + GST in cash sale proceeds
- Funds boost cash reserves, to be directed toward large-scale regional exploration

Barton Gold Holdings Limited (ASX: BGD) (Barton or the Company) is pleased to announce that it has sold a portion of its central Gawler Craton mine camp for $737,500 + GST in a cash transaction.

The camp is owned by a wholly owned subsidiary of Barton, and is a part of Barton's broader Infrastructure Hub which includes the Central Gawler Mill.¹ The portion sold represents capacity which is surplus to the Company's regional strategy and requirements.

The funds received will be directed towards ongoing large-scale exploration programs at the Company's primary area of interest, being the Southern Hub, which hosts the Tarcoola and Tunkillia Gold Projects.

Commenting on the camp disposal and sale proceeds, Barton MD Alexander Scanlon said:

"We are pleased to share this news with investors, with this sale of surplus camp representing the first of several value-add corporate initiatives we have underway in parallel with large-scale regional exploration."

"The Central Gawler Mill will initially service regional toll milling and Stage 1 Tarcoola operations, so the current environment of high asset prices presents strong opportunities to realise significant value, strategically re-stock capital from internal sources, and direct proceeds toward high-value exploration."

Authorised by the Board of Directors of Barton Gold Holdings Limited.
