The Board currently comprises five directors, one executive Chairperson, and four independent non-executive directors. A letter of appointment is executed with each Director and Senior Executive of the Company setting out the terms of their employment.

The specific skills that the Board collectively bring to the Company include:

- Industrial expertise
- Commercial experience
- Public company experience
- Analytical
- Financial
- Risk management
- Strategic planning and leadership
- Corporate governance
- Communications
- Interpersonal

The Board reviews its composition as required to ensure that the Board has the appropriate mix of commercial and financial skills, technical expertise, industry experience, and diversity (including, but not limited to gender and age) in its membership. The Board is primarily responsible for identifying potential new directors, however has the option to use an external consulting firm to identify and approach possible new candidates for directorship. When a vacancy exists, or where it is considered that the Board would benefit from the services of a new director with particular skills, candidates with the appropriate experience, expertise and diversity are considered. Each incumbent director is given the opportunity to meet with each candidate on a one to one basis. The full Board then appoints the most suitable candidate who must stand for election at the next annual general meeting (AGM) of shareholders.

The Board undertakes appropriate checks before appointing a person as a Director or putting forward to shareholders a candidate for election as a Director.

The Board ensures that shareholders are provided with all relevant information for considering the election and re-election of a Director.

(c) Retirement and re-election of directors

The Constitution of the Company requires one-third of directors (or the number nearest one third, rounded up), other than the Managing Director, to retire from office at each AGM. Directors who have been appointed by the Board after the last AGM are required to retire from office at the next AGM and are not taken into account in determining the number of directors to retire at that AGM. Retiring directors are eligible for re-election by shareholders.

No Directors shall hold office for a period of three years without seeking re-election.

(d) Independence of directors

The Board has reviewed the position and association of each of the five directors in office during the year and considers that four directors are independent. In considering whether a director is independent, the Board has regard to the independence criteria in ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations Principle 2 and other facts, information and circumstances that the Board considers relevant. The Board assesses the independence of new directors upon appointment and reviews their independence, and the independence of the other directors, as appropriate. A director is considered to be independent where they receive no material financial or contractual benefits with the company over and above their director's fee and entitlements.

1. Board of Directors (continued)

The Board considers that Ms Peggy Liao, Mr Ian Burton, Ms Xiao Lan Wu and Mr Oliver Hein meet the criteria in Principle 2. They have no material business or contractual relationship with the Company, other than as a Director, and no conflicts of interest which could interfere with the exercise of independent judgement. Accordingly, they are considered to be independent.

The Chairperson of the Company, Ms Loretta Lee, founded the Company and has held the role of Chairperson since the Company was established. Ms Lee is an integral part of the Company and also a major shareholder and due to her detailed knowledge of the business and the specialised skills that she brings to the Company, it is not practical for her role as Chairperson to be carried out by other directors, nor for the roles of Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer to be segregated.

(e) Verification of periodic reports

Periodic reports are provided on a minimum of a quarterly basis for the Company via the submission of quarterly activities reports and quarterly cash flow reports as requested by the ASX, in the form of an Appendix 4C. Activities reports are prepared by management and circulated to the full Board for review and comment to ensure accuracy with the Directors' knowledge and understanding of operations during the quarter. Financial data is prepared and sent to the Board for review against the Directors' knowledge and understanding of operations for each quarter before approval for release to the market. No other periodic reports are currently prepared.

(f) Director education

All new Directors complete an induction process. The non-executive directors are given every opportunity to gain a better understanding of the business, the industry, and the environment within which the Group operates, and are given access to continuing education opportunities to update and enhance their skills and knowledge.

The Board are specifically provided the opportunity to enhance their financial and compliance skills in relation to public companies through external courses.

(g) Independent professional advice

Each Director has the right of access to all relevant Company information and to the Company's executives and, subject to prior approval of the Chairperson, each director has the right to seek independent legal and other professional advice at the Company's expense concerning any aspect of the Company's operations or undertakings in order to fulfil their duties and responsibilities as directors.

(h) Board performance review

There is no formal appraisal system in place for Board performance on a director-by-director basis. The performance of all Directors is assessed through review by the Board as a whole of a Director's attendance at, and involvement in, Board meetings, their performance and other matters identified by the Board or other Directors. Significant issues are actioned by the Board. Due to the Board's assessment of the effectiveness of these processes, the Board has not otherwise formalised measures of a Director's performance.

The Company has not conducted a formal performance evaluation of the individual members of the Board during the reporting year. However, the Board conducts a review of the performance of the Company against budgeted targets and strategic objectives on an ongoing basis.

The Board does assess the performance of senior executives on an annual basis. An assessment was carried out during the current financial year.

2. Board committees

Board committees and membership

The functions to be performed by sub-committees under the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (being the Audit, Risk, Remuneration and Nomination Committees) are currently being performed by the full Board and this is reflected in the written policy setting out the responsibilities of the Board. Having regard to the number of members currently comprising the Company's Board, the Board does not consider it appropriate to delegate these responsibilities to a sub-committee of the Board. However, meetings are held throughout the year between the Company Secretary, Mr David McArthur, the Board and/or Board members as appropriate and the Company's auditors to discuss the Company's ongoing activities and to discuss any proposed changes prior to their implementation and to seek advice in relation thereto.

As the Board comprises the members that would perform the duties of each of the committees under the Corporate Governance Recommendations, it has assessed the requirements for the committees and has determined the Board can perform the requisite function a sub-committee would perform for each of recommendations 2.1, 4.1, 7.1 and 8.1. This is also identified in the Board Charter that the full Board will perform the functions of the sub-committees until the Company reaches a level of operations that would show need for separate sub-committees.

3. Managing business risk

The Board believes that risk management and compliance are fundamental to sound management and that oversight of such matters is an important responsibility of the Board. The Group maintains policies and practices designed to identify and manage significant business risks, including:

The Company's risk profile is reviewed annually and was reviewed during the financial year. The Board may consult with the Company's external auditors on external risk matters or other appropriately qualified external consultants on risk generally, as required.

The Board has not established a separate Risk Committee. The Board as a whole assesses and monitors risk management.

The Company does not have an internal audit unit.

The Company assesses its exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks. The Board assesses the possible impact of changes and implements strategies to minimise exposure to these risks. The Board does not consider that the Company currently has any material exposure to environmental or social risks.
