Ben Wyatt to join APM Board

APM Human Services International Limited (ASX: APM; 'APM' or 'the Company') is pleased to announce that the Board of the Company has nominated Mr Ben Wyatt to be appointed as an Independent Non-Executive Director ("Director") of the Company at its Annual General Meeting ("AGM"), expected to occur in the last week of October 2022.

Mr Wyatt has accepted the nomination and consented to act accordingly. If elected, Mr Wyatt will commence as a Director of the Company at the conclusion of the AGM.

Mr Wyatt is an existing member of the APM Advisory Board and has supported the executive team on strategic matters across the business with his extensive public policy, commercial and regulatory experience.

Mr Wyatt is the former Western Australian Treasurer and has had ministerial responsibility for Finance, Energy, Aboriginal Affairs and Lands. He retired from the Western Australian Parliament in March 2021.

Mr Wyatt holds a Master's degree with Distinction from the London School of Economics and a Bachelor of Laws from the University of Western Australia. Prior to entering Parliament, Mr Wyatt practised as a lawyer in both private practice and with the Western Australian Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions. Mr Wyatt currently serves on the Boards of Woodside Petroleum and Rio Tinto.

Commenting on the appointment, APM Executive Chair, Megan Wynne said:

"It is with great pleasure that we nominate Ben to be appointed to the Board of APM. His input as a member of the Advisory Board has been invaluable and his proven strategic leadership will support APM on the execution of its growth priorities both locally and internationally".

Ends

Authorised for release to the ASX by the Board of APM Human Services International Limited.
