Development / Near-Producing Assets Bringing the Norseman Gold Project into production is an immediate priority in order to deliver cash flow to Tulla Resources

First production expected September 2022

Capitalising on the extensive exploration work recently undertaken Committed to work with the Manager to identify programs to be pursued Mineral Resource and Ore Reserve growth

Generate cashflow and long term value for Tulla Resources and its shareholders Identify experienced partners / operators to develop other mineral assets

Gold and battery metals have initially been identified as commodities to be prioritised
