CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This Corporate Governance Statement (Statement) is current as at 29 August 2022 and has been approved by the Board of the Company on that date.

This Corporate Governance Statement discloses the extent to which the Company followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in its publication Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations – 4th Edition (Recommendations) throughout the financial year commencing on 1 July 2021 and to the date of this Corporate Governance Statement.

The Recommendations are not prescriptive, however the Recommendations that have not been followed have been identified and reasons provided for not following them along with what (if any) alternative governance practices the Company adopted in lieu of the specific Recommendation. With the exception of the departures detailed in this Statement, the corporate governance practices of the Company during the reporting period were compliant with the Recommendations.

The Company has adopted a Corporate Governance Plan which provides the written terms of reference for the Company's corporate governance duties.

In addition to the information contained in this Statement, the Company's website at <https://fenixresources.com.au/> contains additional details of its corporate governance practices and procedures.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
Recommendation 1.1 (a) A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter which sets out the respective roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chair and management, and includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management.	YES	The Company has adopted a Board Charter that sets out the specific roles and responsibilities of the Board, the Chair and management and includes a description of those matters expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. A copy of the Company's Board Charter is available on the Company's website.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a Director; and (a) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director.	YES	(a) Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, the principal functions of the Board include ensuring appropriate checks are undertaken prior to the appointment of Directors and senior executives. The Board undertakes appropriate background checks, including checks as to the candidate's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history. (b) Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, shareholders must be provided with all material information in which to enable shareholders to make an informed decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each Director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	YES	Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, the Company is required to have written agreements with each of its Directors and senior executives setting out the terms of their appointment. As at the date of this Statement, the Company has written agreements with all Directors and senior executives.
Recommendation 1.4 The Company Secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.	YES	The Company's Board Charter outlines the role, responsibilities and accountability of the Company Secretary.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
		In accordance with the Company's Board Charter, the Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with corporate governance, including, ensuring that the Board processes and procedures run efficiently and effectively.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (i) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (ii) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (iii) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in the Workplace Gender Equality Act.	NO	(a) As at the date of this Statement, the Company has not adopted a diversity policy. (b) Given the size of the Company and its current stage of operation, the Board does not presently intend to adopt a diversity policy or set specific diversity objectives, including in respect of gender diversity. However, pursuant to the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, the Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity of the existing Board. In particular, the Board is to identify the particular skills and diversity that will best increase the Board's effectiveness and prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for the particular appointment. (c) The respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (which includes contractors) are: Board: 0% Senior management: 0% Employees: 14% (d) Whilst the Board strongly endorses gender diversity, until such time as the Company's human resource base has grown to a point where fully implementing a diversity policy and specific measurable objectives will become more meaningful, the Company will continue to recruit the best person for each role, regardless of gender, ethnicity, age, relationship status or any other irrelevant factor not applicable to the position. (e) The Company is not in the S&P / ASX 300 Index.

If the entity was in the S&P / ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.
Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual Directors; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period. 	YES	(a) Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, the Board is required to undertake an annual evaluation of Board and Director performance. The review will be based on a number of goals for the Board and individual Directors that will be established. The goals are based on corporate requirements and any areas for improvement that may be identified. The Board will consider the outcome of such reviews in a dedicated meeting and develop a series of actions and goals to guide improvement. The Chair will provide each Director with confidential feedback on his or her performance. This feedback is used to develop a development plan for each Director. The Board does not endorse the reappointment of a Director who is not satisfactorily performing the role. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will arrange for a performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees and individual Directors to be conducted on an annual basis. (b) During the reporting period the Board undertook a formal Performance Evaluation of the Board.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	YES	(a) Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, all senior executives at the Company will be subject to an annual performance evaluation by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee (or the Board in the absence of a Nomination and Remuneration Committee). Each year a set of performance targets will be established for senior executives (including the Managing Director). These targets are aligned to overall business goals and the Company's requirements of Board Charter. In the case of the Managing Director, these targets are negotiated between the Managing Director and the Board and signed off by the whole Board. An informal assessment of progress is carried out throughout the year. A full evaluation of the executive's performance against the agreed targets takes place annually. This will normally occur in conjunction with goal setting for the coming year. Since the Company is committed to continuous improvement and the development of its people, the results of the evaluation form the basis of the executive's development plan. Performance pay components of executives' packages are dependent on the outcome of the evaluation. (b) The Managing Director was the only senior executive during the reporting period. Subsequent to the end of the reporting period, the Board undertook an evaluation of the performance of the Managing Director against the agreed targets.

Principle 2: Structure the Board to be effective and add value
Recommendation 2.1 The Board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent Directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent Director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address Board succession issues and to ensure that the Board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	YES	a) The Board opted to disband the Remuneration and Nomination Committee during FY22, when the Board reduced in size to three members. Currently the full Board undertakes remuneration and nomination responsibilities, in accordance with a Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, a copy of which is disclosed on the Company's website. The members of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, for the period it was in effect, their relevant skills and experience, and details of meetings held during the relevant reporting period are published in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders.
Recommendation 2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a Board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	YES	Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, the Board has developed a skills matrix which sets out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership, which currently includes, among others, corporate leadership, strategy, financial literacy, industry experience, sales and marketing, technical qualifications, risk management, health and safety, environment and stakeholder relations. Details of each Director's relevant skills and experience are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the Directors considered by the Board to be independent Directors; (b) if a Director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th Edition), but the Board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the Director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the Board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each Director	YES	(a) The Company will disclose the names of those Directors it considers to be independent in its Annual Report and, where a Director is standing for election at a General Meeting, in the applicable Notice of Meeting. The Board considers there is currently one independent Director, Mr John Welborn. Mr Rob Brierley is not considered independent as he is engaged in an executive capacity. Mr Garry Plowright is not considered independent as he was previously engaged in an executive capacity until 1 January 2021. (b) N/A (c) The Company's Annual Report to Shareholders contains disclosure relating to the length of service of each Director, as at the end of each financial year.
Recommendation 2.4 A majority of the Board of a listed entity should be independent Directors.	NO	Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, the majority of the Board should be independent, non-executive Directors at a time when the size of the Company and its activities warrants such a structure. The Board currently comprises a total of three directors, of which only one, Mr John Welborn, is considered to be independent.
Recommendation 2.5 The Chair of the Board of a listed entity should be an independent Director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	YES	Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, where practical, the Chair of the Board should be an independent Director and is not to be the same person as the Managing Director. Non-Executive Chairman, Mr John Welborn is an independent, non-executive Director of the Company.
Recommendation 2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new Directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as Directors effectively.	YES	Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, new directors will undergo an induction process in which they will be given a full briefing on the Company. This will include meeting with key executives, tours of the Company's operations, an induction package and presentations.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	COMPLY	EXPLANATION
		The Company is committed to continuing development of its Directors and executives. In line with this commitment, there is an expectation that all Directors and the Managing Director will commit to at least 2 days of professional development each year. The Board allocates an annual budget of $5,000 per Director to encourage Directors to participate in training and development programs. Any Director wishing to undertake either specific directorial training or personal development courses is expected to approach the Chair for approval of the proposed course. Development programs may be in both governance and governance processes or in the Company's industry. The Board will also undertake an annual review in relation to whether there is a need for existing Directors to undertake professional development.
