Delivering skilled labour to site, every day

RBR Executive Chairman Ian Macpherson said:

"Our PD management have moved quickly to engage with operators and contractors to the expanding Temane LPG project in recent months. This initial contract is hoped to be first of many as PD responds to further requests for tender."

The Temane LPG Project provides significant opportunities to expand our services in the region; not only for PD in terms of accommodation and site facilities but also our skills training and labour supply business via Futuro Skills."
