SRG Global's Aboriginal Joint Venture 'Bugarrba' Awarded Five-Year Term Contract With Iron Bridge Operations valued at ~$40m

Highlights:

- SRG Global's Aboriginal Joint Venture Bugarrba PJV (Bugarrba) has been awarded a five-year term contract valued at ~$40m
- Providing engineered scaffold services for Iron Bridge Operations in Western Australia
- Bugarrba is a partnership between members of the Njamal People and SRG Global

SRG Global Ltd ('SRG Global' or 'the Company', ASX: SRG) is pleased to announce its Aboriginal Joint Venture Bugarrba has been awarded a five-year term contract with Iron Bridge Operations.

The five-year term contract with Iron Bridge, an unincorporated joint venture between Fortescue Metals Group (Fortescue) subsidiary FMG Iron Bridge and Formosa Steel IB, is a Master Agreement for Maintenance and Shutdown Services to provide engineered scaffold services across its new magnetite project in Western Australia. The contract is expected to commence early calendar 2023.

Bugarrba is a joint venture with members of the Njamal People and SRG Global. The traditional land of the Njamal people covers 42,000 square km's within the Pilbara with its name meaning 'Country' in the Njamal language. Bugarrba's vision is to provide meaningful and sustainable employment opportunities to its people and Aboriginal people more broadly.

Terry Wilson, Bugarrba Board Member commented "Bugarrba are excited to secure another important contract for the Njamal people and are looking forward to working with Iron Bridge Operations located on the traditional lands of the Njamal people"

David Macgeorge, SRG Global Managing Director commented "SRG is tremendously proud of our Bugarrba joint venture, seeing its continued success and contribution to Aboriginal people, and working with Iron Bridge Operations, on what is such an innovative project for Western Australia"
