

Quarterly Activities Report for Quarter Ended 30 September 2022

HIGHLIGHTS

- Continued engagement with the Wintawari Guruma Aboriginal Corporation (WGAC) regarding the timing of heritage surveys and planned drilling program
- Environmental work program advanced at Equinox's Hamersley Project with engagement of Umwelt.
- Preliminary flora and fauna baseline studies initiated

Equinox Resources Limited ("Equinox" or "Company") is pleased to present the Company's quarterly activities report for the September 2022 quarter. The primary focus of the Company's activities over the quarter was on the implementation of our systematic development strategy for our Hamersley Iron Ore Project ("Hamersley Project"), and in particular, key activities required to de-risk and progress the potential development of the project.

The Hamersley Iron Ore Project (Pilbara Western Australia, 100% interest)

The Hamersley Project is strategically located in the infrastructure-rich Pilbara iron ore province of Western Australia. The Project comprises the granted Mining Lease (M47/1450).

The Company's key activities completed during the September quarter included the on-going stakeholder engagement and consultation with the Wintawari Guruma Aboriginal Corporation ("WGAC") to plan and conduct the heritage surveys to support the Company's drilling program and furtherance of the Environmental Gap Analysis reports and baseline environmental studies for the Hamersley Project with Umwelt.

Environmental Survey's and Planning

As previously announced, Umwelt, key environmental specialists, has been providing ongoing environmental support to the Company with regards to its Hamersley Project development planning. This has been in the form of a detailed gap analysis and approvals pathway which identified the need for further supporting environmental studies.

Umwelt has 25+ years of experience in environmental and social consulting, successfully completing over 5,000 projects across Australia in the public and private sectors, including infrastructure, mining, industrial, urban development, defence, and state and commonwealth government sectors.

During the Quarter, experienced consultants were engaged to undertake flora and vegetation, terrestrial fauna, and subterranean fauna studies to assess key areas of the Project that were identified from the gap analysis. These environmental studies have been designed to be carried out in parallel with the planned heritage survey, with the first phase comprising a desktop study (database and literature search) and non-ground disturbing studies of the project area.

These studies are important in understanding the ultimate environmental permitting process for the Hamersley Project, and in particular, the key activities required to de-risk and progress the development strategy of the project.

Drill Planning and Native Title Engagement

During the quarter, drill and heritage survey planning works continued in preparation for the Company's planned drilling campaign.

The Company continued with its community engagement, including its regular open, transparent and consultative dialogue with the WGAC with regards to our planned drilling and future potential development program for the Hammersley Project. As previously announced, the Company has requested that updated archaeological and ethnographic surveys be undertaken on the entire Hammersley Project.

Comprehensive Heritage Surveys are a necessary part of a consultative and collaborative approach to progressing potential project development, and the Company is committed to carrying these out with the utmost respect as part of the Company's environmental, social and governance responsibilities.

Given that the Company is seeking to pursue development on Eastern Guruma country, we have sought to consult extensively with WGAC on planned drilling activities which form part of the overall project development plan. During this process the WGAC have made clear to the Company that new heritage surveys are required ahead of any ground disturbance activities occurring on-site.

As previously announced, the Company has been openly working with the WGAC to secure suitable accommodation for the survey party of the WGAC's in-house cultural heritage group-Yular Heritage, in light of the impacts of COVID-19. Following securing suitable accommodation, it was anticipated that the requested updated archaeological and ethnographic surveys would be undertaken on the Hammersley Project in the later part of the September Quarter, however, due to unforeseeable events, these surveys have been postponed. The Company is working closely with the WGAC to arrange a suitable time for these survey's to be carried out.

Business Development

During the quarter the Company continued to review potential acquisition opportunities and partnerships that have a strategic fit for the Company and that have the potential to deliver value for Shareholders.

Corporate

2022 Annual General Meeting

The Company lodged its 2022 Annual Report for the period ended 30 June 2022 with the ASX on 15 September 2022 and will be holding its 2022 Annual General Meeting on 29 November 2022.

Registered Address and Place of Business

The registered address and principal place of business for the Company was moved to Level 50, 108 St Georges Terrace Perth WA 6000.

Corporate Advocacy Engagement

During the quarter, the Company engaged Corporate Affairs Australia ("CAA") to assist the Company with the planning for community, government and stakeholder engagement in support for the Hammersley Project.

CAA is a full-service corporate affairs agency, led by experienced practitioners Simon Corrigan and Tim Walster, who provide strategic corporate affairs advice and support across Australia, including for community relations, approvals, government relations and communications.

Appendix 5B

The Appendix 5B quarterly cashflow report for the quarter ended 30 September 2022 is submitted separately.

The Group had a cash balance of $5,663k as at 30 September 2022. Exploration expenditure during the quarter totalled $80k.

Use of Funds

A comparison of the Company's actual expenditure since admission to the Official List of ASX to 30 September 2022 against estimated expenditure in the Use of Funds statement in the Prospectus dated 31 August 2021 as supplemented by the Supplementary Prospectus dated 7 September 2021 (together the "Prospectus") is set out below:

Use of funds	Prospectus estimate (2 years)	Use until 30 Sept 22
Exploration and development at the Hamersley Iron Ore Project	4,970,000	769,618
Corporate Administration	1,950,000	949,075
Working capital	528,000	401,153
Expenses of the Offers	852,000	740,179
Expenses of the Acquisition	500,000	425,485
M&A budget for complementary assets/opportunities	200,000	51,083
Total	9,000,000	3,336,593

Use of funds variance explanations are outlined below:

- significant variances on operational expenditures are as a result of the Company being only listed for 11.5 months into the 2 year prospectus estimate and delays with heritage matters resulting from the impact of COVID-19;
- variances in expenses of the offer relate to higher than estimated legal fees.

Related Parties

As outlined in Section 6 of the attached Appendix 5B, during the September quarter approximately $80k in payments were made to related parties and/or their associates for director's remuneration ($50k) and CFO services ($30k).

Capital Structure

The Capital Structure at the end of the September quarter is as follows:

- 95,500,001 Ordinary Shares on issue;
- 7,000,000 Unlisted Options on issue; and
- 9,500,000 Performance Shares on Issue.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements included in this release constitute forward-looking information. Statements regarding EQN's plans with respect to its mineral properties and programs are forward-looking statements. There can be no assurance that EQN's plans for development of its mineral properties will proceed as currently expected. There can also be no assurance that EQN will be able to confirm the presence of additional mineral resources, that any mineralisation will prove to be economic or that a mine will successfully be developed on any of EQN's mineral properties. The performance of EQN may be influenced by a number of factors which are outside the control of the Company and its Directors, staff, and contractors.

These statements include, but are not limited to statements regarding future production, resources or reserves and exploration results. All such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond the control of the Company, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: (i) those relating to the interpretation of exploration sample, mapping and drill results, the geology, grade and continuity of mineral deposits and conclusions of economic evaluations, (ii) risks relating to possible variations in reserves and resources, grade, planned mining dilution and ore loss, or recovery rates and changes in project parameters as plans continue to be refined, (iii) the potential for delays in exploration or development activities or the completion of feasibility studies, (iv) risks related to commodity price and foreign exchange rate fluctuations, (v) risks related to failure to obtain adequate financing on a timely basis and on acceptable terms or delays in obtaining governmental approvals or in the completion of development or construction activities, and (vi) other risks and uncertainties related to the company's prospects, properties and business strategy.

There is continuing uncertainty as to the full impact of COVID-19 on EQN's business, the Australian economy, share markets and the economies in which EQN conducts business. Given the high degree of uncertainty surrounding the extent and duration of the COVID-19 pandemic, it is not currently possible to assess the full impact of COVID-19 on EQN's business or the price of EQN securities.

Except for statutory liability which cannot be excluded, each of EQN, its officers, employees and advisors expressly disclaim any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the material contained in these forward-looking statements and excludes all liability whatsoever (including in negligence) for any loss or damage which may be suffered by any person as a consequence of any information in forward-looking statements or any error or omission. EQN undertakes no obligation to update publicly or release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after today's date or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events other than required by the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement.
