 - (ii) waives any objection that person may have to the consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the business referred to in the notice of the meeting or in clause 7.2(c), unless the person objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

7.3 Admission, safety and participation at general meetings

- (c) If a separate meeting place is linked to the main place of a general meeting by Virtual Meeting Technology which, by itself or in conjunction with other arrangements:
 - (i) gives the general body of members in the separate meeting place a reasonable opportunity to participate in proceedings in the main place;
 - (ii) enables the chair to be aware of proceedings in the other place; and
 - (iii) enables the members in the separate meeting place to vote on a show of hands or on a poll,a member present at the separate meeting place is taken to be present at the general meeting and entitled to exercise all rights as if they were present at the main place.

- (d) If any technical difficulty occurs, whether before or during the general meeting, that results in one or more of the matters in clause 7.3(c) no longer being satisfied, the chair may, subject to the Corporations Act and clause 7.4:

 - (ii) adjourn the meeting either for a reasonable period of time as may be required to fix the technology or to such other date, time and location as the chair of the meeting considers appropriate.

 - (f) If the chair exercises their right under clause 7.7(e), it is in the chair's sole discretion whether to seek the approval of the members present to the adjournment.
 - (g) If the chair does seek the members' approval, the chair must adjourn the meeting if the members present with a majority of votes agree or direct that the chair must do so.
 - (h) Business must not be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
 - (i) Where a meeting is adjourned under this clause 7.7, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given to the ASX, but, except as provided by clause 7.7(j), need not be given to any other person.

7.8 Decisions at general meetings

- (a) Except where the Corporations Act, the Listing Rules or this Constitution requires a question or matter to be passed as a special resolution, questions and matters arising at a general meeting are to be decided by a majority of votes cast by the members present and entitled to vote at the meeting. A decision made in this way is for all purposes a determination of the members.
- (b) In the case of an equal number of votes on any proposed resolution:
 - (i) the chair of the meeting does not have a second or casting vote other than in their capacity as a member; and
 - (ii) the proposed resolution is taken as having been unsuccessful.
- (c) A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands of the members present and entitled to vote unless:
 - (i) a poll is required in accordance with the Corporations Act;
 - (ii) either of the following applies, in which case the resolution must be determined by poll:
 - (A) the notice of general meeting set out an intention to propose the resolution and stated the resolution; or
 - (B) the Company has given notice of the resolution in accordance with section 249O of the Corporations Act; or
 - (iii) the following applies:
 - (A) before a vote by show of hands is taken;
 - (B) before the result of the show of hands is declared; or
 - (C) immediately after the result of the show of hands is declared, a poll is demanded by:
 - (D) the chair of the meeting;

- (E) at least five members present and entitled to vote on the relevant resolution; or
- (F) by a member or members:
 - (1) present and entitled to vote on the relevant resolution; and
 - (2) taken together representing at least 5% of the votes that may be cast by all members present and entitled to vote on the resolution.
- (d) A demand for a poll does not prevent the meeting from continuing in order to consider or transact any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded.
- (e) Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chair of a general meeting that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company, is conclusive evidence of the fact. Neither the chairman nor the minutes need state, and it is not necessary to prove, the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (f) If a poll is duly demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken when and in the manner the chair of the meeting directs, and the result of the poll will be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (g) A poll cannot be demanded at a general meeting to decide the election of the chair of the meeting.
- (h) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time before the poll is taken.

7.9 Voting rights

- (a) Subject to this Constitution and to any rights or restrictions attached to any shares or class of shares, at a general meeting:
 - (i) on a show of hands, every member present has one vote;
 - (ii) on a poll every member present has:
 - (A) one vote for each fully paid share held by the member and in respect of which the member is entitled to vote; and
 - (B) a fraction of a vote for each partly paid share held by the member and in respect of which the member is entitled to vote, equivalent to the proportion that the amount paid (not credited) on the share bears to the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) on the share, and ignoring any amount paid on a share in advance of a call.

- (b) Where a person present at a general meeting represents more than one member, whether personally or by proxy, attorney or Representative, the following rules apply to a vote taken on a show of hands:
 - (i) the person is entitled to one vote only despite the number of members the person represents; and
 - (ii) the person's vote will be taken as having been cast for all the members the person represents.
- (c) A joint holder may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative as if that person was the sole holder. If more than one joint holder tenders a vote, only the vote of the holder whose name appears first in the register of members counts.
- (d) The parent or guardian of a member who is an infant may vote at a general meeting by producing to the chair evidence of the relationship or of the appointment as a guardian, as the chair or the directors may reasonably require. The chair must accept any vote tendered by a parent or guardian of an infant member to the exclusion of the vote of the actual infant member.
- (e) A person entitled to a share as a result of a Transmission Event may vote at a general meeting in respect of that share as if that person were the registered holder of the share if, at least 48 hours before the meeting (or such shorter time as the directors determine), the directors have:
 - (i) admitted that person's right to vote at that meeting in respect of the share; or
 - (ii) been satisfied of that person's right to be registered as the holder of, or to transfer, the share under clause 5.3(c),and the chair must accept any vote tendered by that person to the exclusion of the vote of the registered holder of the share.
- (f) Where a member holds any partly paid share on which any call or other amount due and payable to the Company has not been paid at the time of the meeting:
 - (i) that member is only entitled to be present and to vote at a general meeting if the member holds other shares on which a call or other amounts are not due and payable at the time of the meeting; and

- (ii) if a poll is demanded, that member is not entitled to vote in respect of the partly paid share, but may vote in respect of any other shares held on which a call or other amount is not then due and payable.
- (g) Any objection or challenge to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:
 - (i) must be raised at that meeting, either before or immediately after the result of the motion on which the challenged vote is tendered; and
 - (ii) must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (h) A vote that is allowed by the chair under clause 7.9(g) is valid for all purposes.
- (i) The chair may decide any difficulty or dispute that arises as to the number of votes that may be cast by or on behalf of any member and the decision of the chair is final.
- (j) A member who holds Restricted Securities who breaches a restriction deed or a provision of this Constitution restricting the disposal of those securities is not entitled to any voting rights in respect of those Restricted Securities for so long as the breach continues.

7.10 Representation at general meetings

- (a) Subject to this Constitution, each member entitled to vote at a meeting of members may vote:
 - (i) in person or, where a member is a body corporate, by its Representative;
 - (ii) by proxy or, if the member is entitled to cast two or more votes at the meeting, by not more than two proxies; or
 - (iii) by not more than two attorneys.
- (b) A proxy, attorney or Representative may be a member of the Company but does not have to be a member.
- (c) A proxy, attorney or Representative may be appointed by a member for all general meetings, or for any number of general meetings, or for a particular general meeting.
- (d) Unless otherwise provided in the Corporations Act or in the appointment, an appointment of a proxy, attorney or Representative confers authority on that person:
 - (i) to agree to a meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Corporations Act or by this Constitution;

- (ii) to speak to any proposed resolution on which the proxy, attorney or Representative may vote;
 - (iii) to demand or join in demanding a poll on any resolution on which the proxy, attorney or Representative may vote;
 - (iv) even though the appointment may refer to a specific meeting to be held at a specified time or venue, where the meeting is rescheduled or adjourned to another time or changed to another venue, to attend and vote at the re-scheduled or adjourned meeting or at the new venue; and
 - (v) even though the appointment may refer to specific resolutions and may direct the proxy, attorney or Representative how to vote on those resolutions, to do any act specified in clause 7.10(e).
 - (e) The acts referred to in clause 7.10(d)(v) are:
 - (i) to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put to the meeting, or any similar motion;
 - (ii) to vote on any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the chair, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the meeting; and
 - (iii) to act generally at the meeting.
 - (f) The chair of a meeting may require any person purporting to act as a proxy, attorney or Representative to establish to the satisfaction of the chair that the person has been validly appointed as a proxy, attorney or Representative and is the person named in the relevant instrument of appointment, failing which the person may be excluded from attending or voting at the meeting.
 - (g) Where a member appoints two proxies or attorneys to vote at the same general meeting and the authority of one is not conditional on the other failing to attend or vote, the following rules apply:
 - (i) where the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of the member's votes that each proxy or attorney may exercise, each proxy or attorney may exercise half of the member's votes;
 - (ii) on a show of hands, neither proxy nor attorney may vote;
 - (iii) on a poll, each proxy or attorney may only exercise the voting rights the proxy or attorney represents; and

- (iv) if both appointments cannot be validly exercised at the meeting, the later appointment revokes the earlier appointment of a proxy or attorney.
- (h) An instrument appointing a Representative, proxy or attorney may direct the manner in which the Representative, proxy or attorney is to vote in respect of a particular resolution. If so, the Representative, proxy or attorney must not vote on the proposed resolution except as directed in the instrument.
- (i) A Representative, proxy or attorney may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting unless the instrument appointing the Representative, proxy or attorney, and the original or a certified copy of the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which the instrument is signed, are received:
 - (i) at the Company's registered office or at the place, fax number or electronic address specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting; and
 - (ii) by the time specified in the notice of meeting.
- (j) Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter by the time and at the place or in the manner set out in clause 7.10(i), a vote cast by a Representative, proxy or attorney is valid even if, before the Representative, proxy or attorney votes:
 - (i) a Transmission Event occurs in relation to the appointer;
 - (ii) the member revokes the Representative's, proxy's or attorney's appointment;
 - (iii) the member revokes the authority under which any third party appointed the Representative, proxy or attorney; or
 - (iv) the member transfers the shares in respect of which the Representative, proxy or attorney was appointed.
- (k) The authority of a Representative, proxy or attorney to speak and vote for a member at a general meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.

7.11 Direct voting

- (a) Despite anything to the contrary in this Constitution, the board may decide that a member who is entitled to attend and vote on a resolution at a general meeting may cast their votes by sending them to the Company before the meeting by physical means, electronic means or both. A vote cast in accordance with any such determination is referred to in this Constitution as a Direct Vote.

- (b) The board may make regulations, rules and procedures (consistent with the provisions of this clause 7.11, the Corporations Act and the Corporations Regulations) for the casting of Direct Votes, including regulations for:

 - (ii) when Direct Votes must be received by the Company to be valid and effective.

 - (i) subject to clause 7.11(e), clause 7.11(f) and clause 7.11(h), votes cast by Direct Vote by a member entitled to vote on the resolution will be counted as if the member had cast the votes in the poll at the meeting;
 - (ii) a Direct Vote received by the Company on a resolution that is amended is taken to be a Direct Vote on that resolution as amended, unless the chairman of the meeting determines that this is not appropriate; and
 - (iii) receipt of a Direct Vote from a member has the effect of revoking (or, in the case of a standing appointment, suspending) the appointment of a proxy, attorney or Representative made by the member under an instrument received by the Company before the Direct Vote was received.
 - (e) A Direct Vote received by the Company:
 - (i) may be withdrawn by the member by notice in writing received by the Company before the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting (or in the case of any adjournment, the resumption of the meeting and, in the case of any postponement the new time for the meeting); and
 - (ii) is automatically withdrawn if:
 - (A) the member attends the meeting in person and registers to vote at the meeting (including by Representative);
 - (B) the Company receives from the member a further Direct Vote or Direct Votes (in which case the most recent Direct Vote is, subject to this clause 7.11, counted in lieu of the prior Direct Vote); or
 - (C) the Company receives, after the member's Direct Vote is received, an instrument under which a Representative, proxy or attorney is appointed to act for the member at the meeting in accordance with clause 7.10.

- (f) A Direct Vote withdrawn under clause 7.11(e) is not counted.
- (g) A Direct Vote received by the Company is valid even if, before the meeting:
 - (i) a Transmission Event occurs to the member; or
 - (ii) the member, where the Direct Vote is cast on behalf of the member by an attorney, revokes the appointment of the attorney or the authority under which the appointment was made by a third party,unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the commencement or resumption of the meeting.
- (h) If the Board has made a determination under clause 7.11(a) to allow voting by Direct Vote at any meeting, the notice of meeting must inform members of their rights to vote by Direct Vote and of any relevant matters specified in regulations made under clause 7.11(b).
- (i) If a member has sent a Direct Vote for a meeting to be held on a specified date and the meeting is postponed under clause 7.1(c) to a later date:
 - (i) the voting instruction is effective for the postponed meeting; and
 - (ii) the later date is substituted for and applies to the exclusion of the original meeting date in the voting instruction,unless the Company receives notice in writing to the contrary by the time specified in regulations made under clause 7.11(b)(ii).

(iv) in any other way permitted by the Corporations Act.

(c) Each member:

(i) is entitled to benefit from any such capitalisation on the same basis as that member is entitled to dividends; and

(ii) must accept any application under clause 11.6(b) in full satisfaction of that member's interests in the capitalised amount.

- (d) Clause 11.2, clause 11.3(a) and clause 11.3(b) apply, so far as they can and with any necessary changes, to a capitalisation of an amount under this clause 11.6 as if references in those clauses to a dividend and to the date a dividend is paid were references to a capitalisation of an amount and to the date the directors resolve to capitalise the amount under this clause 11.6 respectively.

11.7 Ancillary powers

- (a) The directors may do any of the following things to give effect to a resolution for the satisfaction of a dividend in the manner set out in clause 9.3(d)(i) or to capitalise any amount under clause 11.6:
- (i) settle as they think expedient any difficulty that may arise in making the distribution or capitalisation and, in particular, where shares or other securities in the Company are or would otherwise be issuable in fractions:
 - (A) disregarding any fractional share entitlement to any share;
 - (B) making a cash payment in respect of any fractional entitlement;
 - (C) fixing the value for distribution of any specific asset or any part of such asset; or

 - (iii) pay cash or issue shares or other securities to any members in order to adjust the rights of all parties;
 - (iv) vest any specific assets, cash, shares or other securities in a trustee on such trusts for the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalised amount as may seem expedient to the directors; and
 - (v) authorise any person to make, on behalf of all the members entitled to any further shares or other securities as a result of the distribution or capitalisation, an agreement with the Company or another body corporate providing, as appropriate:
 - (A) for the issue to them of such further shares or other securities as fully paid; or
 - (B) for the payment by the Company on their behalf of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares or other securities by the application of their respective proportions of the sum resolved to be capitalised, and any agreement made under an authority referred to in this clause 11.7(a)(v) is effective and binding on all members concerned.

- (b) If the Company distributes to a member shares or other securities in the Company or another body corporate or a trust (whether as a dividend or otherwise and whether or not for value), the member appoints the Company as their agent to do anything needed to give effect to that distribution, including agreeing to become a member of that other body corporate or trust.

11.8 Reserves and profits carried forward

- (a) The directors may:
 - (i) before declaring any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the Company such sums as they think proper as a reserve, to be applied, at the discretion of the directors, for any purpose for which the profits of the Company may be properly applied; and
 - (ii) carry forward so much of the profits remaining as they consider ought not to be distributed as dividends without transferring those profits to a reserve.
- (b) The setting aside of an amount as a reserve does not require the directors to keep the amount separate from other assets of the Company or prevent the amount being used in the business of the Company, invested as the directors think appropriate or subsequently distributed to members.

11.9 Dividend reinvestment plans

- (a) The directors may implement a dividend reinvestment plan on the terms they think fit under which the whole or any part of a dividend due to members who participate in the plan on their shares or any class of shares may be applied in subscribing for securities of the Company or of a Related Body Corporate.
- (b) The directors may amend, suspend or terminate a dividend reinvestment plan implemented by them.

11.10 Dividend selection plans

- (i) to receive a dividend from the Company paid wholly or partly out of a particular fund or reserve or out of profits derived from a particular source; or
 - (ii) to forego a dividend from the Company in place of another form of distribution from the Company or another body corporate or a trust.
- (b) The directors may amend, suspend or terminate any dividend selection plan implemented by them.

11.11 Bonus share plans

The Directors may:

- (a) implement a bonus share plan on such terms as they think fit under which participants may elect to forgo the whole or any part of any dividend due to them on their shares and, in lieu of that dividend, be issued bonus shares in the Company; and
- (b) amend, suspend or terminate any bonus share plan so implemented.

11.12 Capital reductions

The Company may reduce its share capital by any of the means expressly authorised by the Corporations Act, subject to the provisions of that law and, where applicable, the Listing Rules. The Company may reduce its share capital in any way that is not otherwise authorised by law, including by way of an in specie distribution of the assets of the Company (including any shares, options or other securities in another body corporate), if the reduction:

- (a) is fair and reasonable to the members of the Company as a whole;

- (c) is approved by members in accordance with section 256C of the Corporations Act.

11.13 Restricted Securities

- (a) A member who holds Restricted Securities will not be entitled to participate in any return of capital on those securities during the Escrow Period applicable to those securities, except as permitted by the Listing Rules or ASX.

Where the Company, pursuant to a reduction of its share capital in accordance with clause 11.12, distributes shares, options or other securities in another body corporate to members:

 - (ii) the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up,the excess must be divided among the members in proportion to the number of shares held by them, irrespective of the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares;
- (b) for the purpose of calculating the excess referred to in clause 12.1(a), any amount unpaid on a share is to be treated as property of the Company;
- (c) the amount of the excess that would otherwise be distributed to the holder of a partly paid share under clause 12.1(a) must be reduced by the amount unpaid on that share at the date of the distribution; and
- (d) if the effect of the reduction under clause 12.1(c) would be to reduce the distribution to the holder of a partly paid share to a negative amount, the holder must contribute that amount to the Company.

- (b) A division under clause 12.2(a) need not accord with the legal rights of the members and, in particular, any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be wholly or partly excluded.
- (c) Where a division under clause 12.2(a) does not accord with the legal rights of the members, a member is entitled to dissent and to exercise the same rights as if the special resolution sanctioning that division were a special resolution passed under section 507 of the Corporations Act.
- (d) If any of the property to be divided under clause 12.2(a) includes securities with a liability to calls, a person entitled under the division to any of the securities may within ten Business Days after the passing of the special resolution referred to in that clause, direct the liquidator in writing to sell the person's proportion of the securities and to account for the net proceeds. The liquidator must, if practicable, act accordingly.
- (e) Nothing in this clause 12.2 adversely affects any right to exercise any statutory or other power that would have existed if this clause were omitted.
- (f) Clause 11.7 applies, so far as it can and with necessary changes, to a division by a liquidator under clause 12.2(a) as if references in clause 11.7 to the directors were references to the liquidator and references in clause 11.7 to a distribution or capitalisation were references to the division.
