FINANCIAL AND OPERATIONS REVIEW

For the financial period ended 30 September 2022

Overview

Over the first half of FY2023 ("HY2023"), there has been much focus and attention on inflation surging all around the world. This has been caused by various factors impacting supply and demand of various products and services required for human civilization to function. The US economy is undergoing the highest inflation she has experienced since 1981.

In the previous year, inflation was primarily caused by pandemic-related fiscal and monetary stimulus. For 2022, Russia's invasion of Ukraine triggered an energy crisis and soaring energy prices, and China's COVID-zero policy caused general product shortages with global supply chain problems. In a bid to control inflation rates, the Federal Reserve, as well as numerous central banks around the world, hiked interest rates aggressively to control the demand side of the equation, amidst the positive employment markets and high savings rate.

Through rising interest rates, other asset classes' (from stocks, bonds, cryptocurrency and US property) prices are crashing as investors worldwide reallocate their capital towards the perceived safe haven of the US Dollar.

China's economy and their stock market have been in a bearish mood since Feb 2021. Back in October, the Shanghai composite index fell below 3,000, a level that was first surpassed 15 years ago. Though it may be hard to imagine, but this reflects the current low-price levels of the Chinese stock markets. While it fundamentally does not make sense and investors focused on value would no doubt be sensing a great opportunity there, it may take lots of patience for the underlying value to materialize. China is not just a typical capitalist society; it has a strong Central Government with a tendency towards socialism or even communism. This makes investing in China more challenging as we need to also be able to assess Government politics and policies accurately, on top of making sure that we are making the right market assessments.

Overall, the difficult macro-economic environment and challenging market conditions has impacted both the fund management and FinEduTech business segment, resulting in dampened performance for 8I Holdings ("8I" or the "Group") in 2022.

In the first half of HY2023, the Group recorded a revenue of S$10.2 million as compared to S$17.6 million in the previous corresponding period ("HY2022"). 8I recorded S$33.5 million for cash and cash equivalents in HY2023, as compared to S$24.6 million in HY2022.

Business Segment Report

Following the updates from the previous financial year ("FY2022"), the FinEduTech business has made several refinements in its tactical and strategic approach in response to the overall market conditions. While the business enjoyed record industry growth rates at the height of the COVID-19 pandemic, growth rates for the FinEduTech business have normalized gradually as the world returns to normalcy post-pandemic.

While 8VI continues to forge ahead with the sale and subscription of VI App and range of financial education programmes through VI College, conscious effort has been made to redirect and focus primarily in growing new revenue verticals to diversify earnings for both the business segment and the Group. As 8VI undertakes a functional shift in its operations, we expect to see continued short term impact in its earnings.

In the interest of restructuring VI App's offerings for larger scale adoption, VI App refined its marketing and pricing strategy in July 2022 in line with its Blue Ocean plans. While VI App's basic Freemium model provides free-to-view information to the public looking for insights into the preliminary user experience, other models like VI Smart and VI Pro offers paying subscribers enhanced features at affordable rates and flexible plans.

8VI is also at a tipping point of its transformation plans, with significant progress being made as it approaches the final stages of licensing applications for its financial and insurance advisory business in both Singapore and Malaysia. We believe that this new business vertical will take us one step closer to becoming a wealth management platform with a range of complementary services supporting our clientele's financial goals.

For more details on the FinEduTech segment, please refer to the HY2023 Interim Report for 8VI Holdings Limited.

FINANCIAL AND OPERATIONS REVIEW

For our investment portfolios, the continuous refinements to our strategy have enabled us to reduce the downside pressure on our asset values. We have placed a higher emphasis on managing the risk, before focusing on achieving the returns. Picking the bottom right at the lowest is a highly improbable game as it happens on a single day and yet a bull run can last for years. Currently, our portfolios' positions have experienced a big allocation to cash (primarily in US Dollars), ranging from 40% to 85% due to the refinement of our strategy. This is the main reason why our portfolios did not suffer such a massive correction compared to the stock markets during the last 3 months. Our cut-loss strategy has also enabled us to reduce our losses when a stock position experienced plenty of downward pressures.

Asset Management Company

VI Fund Management Pte. Ltd. (previously known as Hidden Champion Capital Management Pte. Ltd.)

Funds Currently Open to Accredited Investors

VI Fund Asia (to be rebranded from HCF Asia)

VI Quant US (8IH VCC VI Quant US sub-fund)

A short summary for both VI Fund Asia and VI Quant US Fund are as follows:

For 1HFY2023, the listed securities under VI Fund Asia (FKA as HCF Asia) registered a return of -15.7% for the last six months, against the MSCI Asia Pac of -23.0% and MSCI China of -21.4%.

Our exposure in Asia was primarily focused on China with a small allocation to Australia. The Chinese Government's COVID-zero policy and interference in markets continue to make it difficult for investors. China's role as a vital manufacturer and node in the supply chain have also resulted in significant impact far beyond her shores. The situation is further complicated by the issue of Taiwan and the United States engaging China in a trade war.

When Shanghai announced the end (on 1st June 2022) to its two-month long COVID-19 lockdown, it brought an outpouring of relief and joy from the residents. This sets in place a recovery in China's stock markets. The increased optimism enables us to deploy much more funds into the markets. However, that was proven to be short-lived as COVID breakouts continue to happen in the various provinces. Sticking to China's COVID-zero policy and strategy, the second wave of lockdowns forced factory closures, logistics and supplies, impacting the whole economy and the markets.

FINANCIAL AND OPERATIONS REVIEW

To add fuel to fire, ambient temperatures in July and August are feverish and the shortage of electricity supplies impacted directly the citizenry and the factories, many of which are forced to reduce their operations or even shut down. All the stock gains made since were gone. We made a strategic decision to cut our losses, hence the big allocation to cash.

We expect that these issues are likely to longer on for the short and mid-term. Nevertheless, we must be nimble during these times and while we have our capital on the sidelines, we are prepared to enter the markets once there is clarity and momentum for an upward trend.

Q VI Quant US summary

For 1HFY2023, the listed securities under VI Quant US registered a return of -27% for the last six months, against the S&P 500 of -20.8% and NASDAQ of -25.6%.

As part of our constant refinement to our investment process, we have further included "Momentum" [first made famous by financial researchers, Jegedeesh and Titman (1993)] as a factor in our process. A factor is any characteristic that helps explain the long-term risk and return performance of an asset. A company's financials do not paint the complete picture of a company's situation and investors' sentiments can fill in the gap through price momentum and acting as a safety net. This Momentum factor, combined with our current screening and ranking of the fastest growing companies at a reasonable price, enable the fund to embark on a sector rotation strategy in alignment with the fundamentals, valuation and market sentiments.

Summary

Overall, the markets have been very challenging to navigate for the past 12 months. We are reviewing our initial plans to expand on our fund products and are considering plans to focus our attention on certain markets and streamlining our offerings. More details will be shared in the next 6 months once we gain clarity on the best way to move forward for the asset management segment.

REPORT ON REVIEW OF CONDENSED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION TO THE MEMBERS OF 8I HOLDINGS LIMITED

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position of 81 Holdings Limited and its subsidiaries (the "Group") as of 30 September 2022 and the related condensed interim consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the six-month period then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes. Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this interim financial information in accordance with Financial Reporting Standards in Singapore, Interim Financial Reporting ("FRSs 34"). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with Singapore Standard on Review Engagements 2410 "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity". A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Singapore Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying condensed interim consolidated financial statements does not give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 30 September 2022, and of its consolidated financial performance, its consolidated changes in equity and its consolidated cash flows for the six-month period then ended in accordance with FRSs 34

2. Basis of preparation and changes in accounting policies

The condensed interim consolidated financial information for the half-year ended 30 September 2022 has been prepared in accordance with FRS 34, Interim Financial Reporting.

The condensed interim consolidated financial information does not include all the notes of the type normally included in annual financial statements. The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year and corresponding interim reporting period.

The financial statements are presented in Singapore Dollars (SGD or S$).

The preparation of the Group's condensed interim consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the reporting date. However, uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of the asset or liability affected in the future periods.

3.1 Critical judgements in applying the entity's accounting policies

Estimates, assumptions and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

- (i) quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1);
- (ii) inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices) (Level 2); and
- (iii) inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

Fair value measurements that use inputs of different hierarchy levels are categorised in its entirety in the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

There were no transfers between levels 1 and 2 during the period.

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as fair value through profit and loss and financial assets through other comprehensive income) is based on quoted market prices at the reporting date. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in Level 1.

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, investment in unquoted equities) is determined by using valuation techniques. The Group uses a variety of methods and makes assumptions that are based on market conditions existing at each balance sheet date. Valuation methods, such as using recent transacted price, are used to determine fair value for the remaining financial instruments. Where a valuation technique for these instruments is based on significant unobservable inputs, such instruments are classified as Level 3.

The carrying amount less impairment provision of trade receivables and payables are assumed to approximate their fair values.
