

One app to grow & manage money

ASX Investor Presentation
December 2022

Dough

Australians are feeling stressed about their finances. Especially those that have never experienced an economic downturn in their adult lives. As interest rates increase to combat rising inflation, people are seeing the value of their money erode, as well as their investment gains.

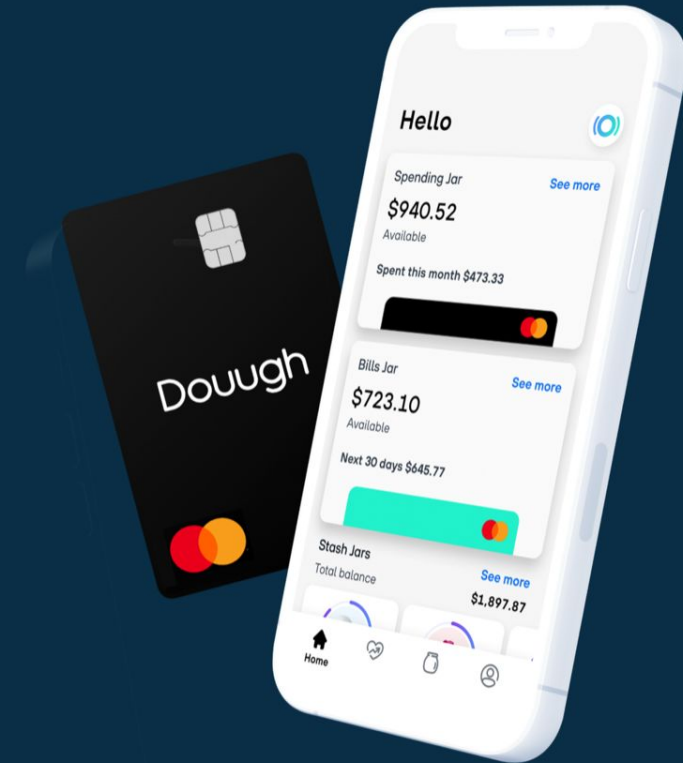

Our research shows that nearly 80% of retail investors that entered the market in the last 2 years are over exposed to 'meme' stocks that have cratered in value. The need to educate individuals on creating a diversified investment plan through dollar cost averaging as a way to build long-term wealth has never been more important.

Evaluated

US market has become crowded and DOU is financially outmuscled by local VC backed competitors at current share price.

Due to weakening of AUD and high CAC of banking-led proposition, the decision has been made to shut down our banking operation to dramatically reduce cash burn.

Strategic discussions are underway on the M&A front to monetise customer base & tech stack.

Current status

Our focus now turns to our home market where our experience and existing technology will allow us to overtake monoline competitors in the race to build a financial super app.

A much loved full service financial super app that delivered Spending, Saving, Budgeting, Early Pay, Portfolio investing and trading, all in one place.

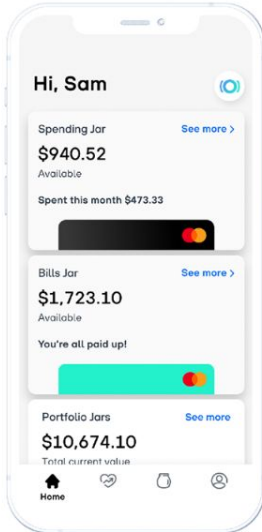

The design/interface is super sleek and user friendly. Dough has really enabled me to gain control of my finances with all of their amazing features. I love how I can automate my budgeting so I don't have to worry about diving my money up every time I get paid. Highly recommend!
