

DRAFT TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Richmond Vanadium Project's Draft Terms of Reference for an Environmental Impact Statement have been released for public and advisory agency comment.
- Provides pathway to Environmental Impact Statement and ultimately grant of an Environmental Authority and Mining Lease.

Richmond Vanadium Technology Limited (ASX: RVT) (Richmond Vanadium Technology or the Company) is pleased to announce the release of the Draft Terms of Reference (TOR) for an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) for its world-class Richmond Vanadium Project.

The Draft TOR describe the scope of environmental, social and economic matters that need to be considered within an EIS to evaluate a project's potential impacts and positive contributions to Queensland. A copy of the release can be found via the following link "draft terms of reference for an environmental impact statement".

We encourage stakeholders to participate in the consultation process to ensure that their opinions and views are heard and understood.

Following the consultation period, which closes on 13 January 2023, the Office of the Co-ordinator General will consider all comments in finalising the TOR which will then be issued to RVT as matters to be addressed in an EIS.

RVT, with its environmental partner Epic Environmental, looks forward to working with the Office of the Co-ordinator General to develop a comprehensive EIS for its Richmond Vanadium Project.

Authorised for release by the Board.
