

ASX ReleaseChief Financial Officer & Company Secretary - Departure

Cash Converters International Limited (ASX:CCV) ("Cash Converters" or "the Company") announces that the Chief Financial Officer & Company Secretary, Mr Leslie Crockett, has resigned from the Company for personal reasons, effective 31 December 2022.

Mr Crockett joined the Company in June 2020 in the capacity of Chief Financial Officer, assuming the additional responsibility of Company Secretary in July 2021. The Board thanks Mr Crockett for his contribution over this period, which included debt refinancing, ensuring the Company remains in a strong financial position.

Mr Jonty Gibbs will assume the role of interim Chief Financial Officer while the Company undertakes an internal and external recruitment process for a permanent appointment to the role. Mr Gibbs is an experienced Chartered Accountant and has held the role of Group Corporate Finance Manager with the Company since March 2021.

The Company also advises that Mr Sonu Cheema has been appointed as Company Secretary.

Authorised for release by the Board of Cash Converters International Limited.

Sam Budiselik

Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer

info@cashconverters.com

About Cash Converters Cash Converters (ASX: CCV) is a diverse international group generating revenue from personal and vehicle finance, retail store operations and franchising. We believe that everyone should have options in life and we provide solutions that 'make life possible' for our customers in an environmentally conscious, responsible and transparent way.

Subscribe to receive our ASX and Company Announcements here: Investor Centre