SSH Group Ltd COO & Executive Director, Stefan Finney commented:

"I am tremendously proud of our partnership with Four Hills Group to form Four Hills Services. Our purpose is to improve outcomes for Australian projects and communities, and through this partnership I am confident we are working toward fulfilling our purpose.

I am excited by what our business can achieve through this partnership, particularly through a focus on driving direct Aboriginal economic impact."

Four Hills Services Managing Director, Ashley Mesch commented:

"This partnership and the coming together of the two proud companies in SSH Group and Four Hills Group, is a true demonstration of what has become the Four Hills Services catch phrase "Stronger Together".

Four Hills Group itself, was founded to take advantage of the excellence that existed within the founding Directors Leadership Group who also represent four proud Traditional Owner groups from across the Kimberley, Pilbara, and Goldfields Regions.
