ASX Announcement | 7 March 2023 | ASX: ICG

INCA APPOINTS EXPLORATION MANAGER

Inca Minerals Limited (ASX: ICG) is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr Emmanuel Wembenyui as Exploration Manager for the Company.

Dr Wembenyui is a highly experienced geologist and geochemist with a strong track record in working in the Australian mining and metals industry. He has extensive expertise in mineral exploration, IOCG, rare earths, uranium, exploration management and earth science. He holds an MSc in Geology and a PhD in Geochemistry and Radiogenic Isotopes from the University of Queensland.

Dr Wembenyui will be responsible for overseeing Inca's exploration activities across its portfolio of projects with a focus on Australia. His strong research and critical thinking skills developed from his experience both in academia and in the field is the mix critical for success within the junior space and we see great value in what he brings to Inca and the team.

Dr Wembenyui commenced with the Company on 17 March 2022 as Project Geologist where he has been involved in all of the Australia projects to date.

Inca's Chairman Adam Taylor said "We are delighted that Dr Wembenyui has accepted the role of Exploration Manager and welcome him to our management team. He brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to Inca and will play a key role in advancing our Australian projects. I particularly like his mix of geological knowledge with a strong respect for economics within the junior space. Dr Wembenyui is a great cultural fit for the Company, and I believe this is a great step for the Company moving forward".

Mr Ross Brown has finished his employment with Inca Minerals Limited, and we thank Ross for his service since being a Founding Director of the Company and wish him well with his future career.

Mr Rob Heaslop is no longer Consultant Exploration Manager for Inca, however we look forward to continuing working with Rob in his capacity as a Joint Venture partner across multiple projects. We also wish him well and expect investors to see him in the industry for years to come.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Inca Minerals Limited.
