FATALITY AT NORTH RANKIN COMPLEX

An incident occurred at approximately 12.00pm AWST today on the offshore Woodside-operated North Rankin Complex which has tragically resulted in the death of an employee of one of Woodside's contractor companies.

The incident occurred during work activity being carried out at the North Rankin Complex. All other people on board are safe.

Woodside CEO Meg O'Neill said, "This is a very sad day for the extended Woodside family and I offer my deepest sympathy to our colleague's family, friends and workmates.

"Any loss of life is heartbreaking.

"We are taking all steps to understand the circumstances around this tragic event and are co-operating closely with Western Australian Police and the National Offshore Petroleum Safety and Emergency Authority in their ongoing investigations."

Senior Woodside executives are travelling to Karratha and counselling and support services are being made available to employees and contractors through our Employee Assistance Program.
