Fatality at Onslow Iron project

Mineral Resources Limited (ASX: MIN) (MinRes) is saddened to advise that at approximately 4pm on 12 June 2023 an incident occurred at the Onslow Iron project which tragically resulted in the fatality of an employee of a contractor at the Ken's Bore site.

The Department of Mines, Industry Regulation and Safety (DMIRS) and WA Police have been notified and are making their way to the site.

MinRes is working with the contractor to provide care and support to the family and site team. MinRes' Employee Assistance Program service provider and senior leadership from the company have been mobilised to site.

MinRes Managing Director Chris Ellison expressed the company's heartfelt condolences to the deceased's family, friends and colleagues.

"We are shocked and deeply saddened by this tragedy. Our thoughts are with the family, friends and the whole Onslow Iron team, and our focus is on supporting them during this difficult time," Mr Ellison said.

Site operations have been suspended. MinRes will provide further updates as and when appropriate.
