ASM appoints Stephen Motteram as CFO

Australian Strategic Materials Limited (ASM or the Company) (ASX:ASM) is very pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Stephen Motteram to the role of Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective 29 January 2024.

Stephen is a senior finance executive with more than 20 years of international experience in banks and commodities trading firms, including Noble Group and National Australia Bank. His extensive experience covers project development, capital raising, financial control, contract negotiations, investment analysis, mergers, acquisitions and treasury operations.

Stephen is a Certified Practising Accountant (CPA) and graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD).

“I am delighted to welcome Stephen to the ASM management team at this important time as we progress offtake agreements, secure project financing and move towards final investment decision on our cornerstone Dubbo Project.” said ASM Managing Director and CEO, Rowena Smith.

“Stephen’s proven experience across project finance, structured finance and the capital markets will support the execution of ASM’s mine to metals strategy. I look forward to working with Stephen as we continue to deliver on the ASM opportunity,” said Ms Smith.
