

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

1 December 2023

UPDATE ON TIMOR LESTE TENEMENT AWARD

Beacon Minerals Limited (ASX: BCN) (“Beacon” or “the Company”) Managing Director Graham McGarry attended the mineral concession award ceremony on 30 November 2023 in Dili. At the award ceremony Beacon was awarded 6 prospective mineral concessions.

The Company is currently reviewing the areas of interest and the conditions applicable to those exploration licences. This review is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2024.

The Company will continue to keep shareholders updated on the progress of this tenement award.

MD/Chairman Graham McGarry commented:

“The award of 6 concessions comprising 294 square kilometres prospective for copper is a reward for Beacon’s persistence and investment since 2016.

“The tender process was professionally managed by senior Government officers and the awards ceremony was the finalisation of that process. The Minister was complimentary to his staff.

“We look forward to conclusion and agreement of the final terms and conditions.

“Conditions attached to the concessions will be finalised in the first quarter of 2024 and if the transaction is completed Beacon will provide details on the tenements and exploration plans. Beacon would aim to commence exploration on the tenement immediately.”
