

FIRST LITHIUM APPOINTS EXPERIENCED GEOLOGICAL SERVICES GROUP TO ADVANCE MALI LITHIUM PROJECT

First Lithium Ltd (“FL1” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a Geological Services Agreement with Pivot Mining Consultants (Pty) Ltd who have been appointed to manage and conduct the maiden mineral resource estimate (MRE) in accordance with the guidelines of the JORC Code (2012), alongside the Project’s existing Competent Person, Kobus Badenhorst of GeoActiv Pty Ltd.

Pivot has extensive consulting experience having undertaken Due Diligence studies, Mineral Resource and Reserve Estimates and Feasibility Studies across many mineral resource projects worldwide. Pivot has commenced the MRE process including assisting with guidance on all aspects of the exploration and reporting methods required for the estimate.

Pivot have allocated Rob Barnett, a professional with 40 years of experience, as the Competent Person for the MRE and he will be assisted by Ken Lomborg, a Pivot Director, who will undertake the resource modelling. Mr Lomborg advised that “Pivot was excited to be joining the First Lithium team and to provide specialist mining consulting services and operational support to the Project”.

First Lithium Managing Director Venkatesh Padala said:

“Pivot provide an abundance of experience and knowledge to FL1’s maiden MRE process and we are excited to be working together. The experience of Rob Barnett incorporates all aspects of geological excellence and Ken Lomborg’s experience, particularly as Immediate Past Chairman of the SAMREC Committee is second to none”.
