Q3 FY24 Quarterly Activity Report and Appendix 4C

Melbourne, Australia – Opyl (ASX:OPL) (Opyl or the Company) today released its Quarterly Activity Report and Appendix 4C for the quarter ended 31 March 2024 (Q3 FY24).

Key highlights

- Market engagement: TrialKey.ai is actively engaging with potential customers and increasing its market presence. It has participated in major industry events and podcasts, with plans for future appearances at significant digital health and clinical trials events.
- Product Enhancements: Significant upgrades to its TrialKey.ai platform. These enhancements include advanced AI-driven algorithms that improve the precision and efficiency of clinical trials, an innovative rating system for principal investigators, and an intelligent site selection tool.
- Database Expansion: TrialKey.ai's trial database has grown to 350,000 trials (previously 65,000), incorporating advanced data extraction techniques to improve the platform's predictive capabilities and design optimisation.
- Divestment of Opin: Opyl has entered a binding agreement to sell its Opin business retaining a 20% stake. This sale is expected to improve cash flow by $700K per annum based on the current cash burn rate, and focus resources on the high-growth potential of TrialKey.ai.
- Leadership Transition: Mark Ziirsen will step down as Chairman, with Saurabh Jain set to assume the role of Executive Chair. Saurabh brings extensive leadership experience and will focus on driving the commercialisation and market expansion of TrialKey.ai.
- Financial Update: Following a successful capital raise, Opyl reported an improved cash position. The proceeds will support the ongoing development and commercialisation of TrialKey.ai. The Company is managing its costs effectively, with stable staff and administrative expenses and increased marketing spending to support the launch of TrialKey.ai. The divestment of Opin is also expected to yield monthly cash savings.

TrialKey update

TrialKey is gaining significant traction in the market. The company has engaged with 33 potential customers, leveraging its past participation in events such as Australian Healthcare Week and appearances on podcasts. To further boost its marketing efforts, TrialKey plans to participate in major events like Digital Health Fest and Global Clinical Trials Connect, while also featuring on influential podcasts. Additional marketing initiatives, including endorsements from specialists and a robust online presence, further strengthen its market position.

The TrialKey.ai platform has undergone significant upgrades, incorporating advanced AI algorithms to enhance clinical trial management. Key enhancements include:

- A rating system for principal investigators, providing valuable feedback and accountability.
- Comprehensive analytics offering insights into trial sponsor performance.
- An intelligent site selection tool, which forecasts and improves site performance.

These upgrades represent a major step forward for clinical research, setting new industry standards for innovation and efficiency.

TrialKey.ai has also expanded its trial database from 65,000 to over 350,000 trials. Advanced techniques are used to improve data extraction and prediction capabilities, resulting in over 90% precision. This expansion enhances the platform's accuracy and scalability, positioning it as a leader in predictive capabilities.

Opin update

As announced on 23 April 2024, Opyl Limited has successfully entered into a binding agreement to divest its Opin business to Dr. Hugo Stephenson's company Trial Screen Pty Ltd, a strategic move to concentrate the Company's resources on high-growth ventures. This agreement, which is subject to shareholder approval at the General Meeting scheduled for 3pm Monday 27 May 2024, will see Opyl retaining a 20% stake in Opin. Dr. Stephenson has committed to investing approximately $1.2 million into Opin over the next year to fuel its growth. The sale is anticipated to significantly improve Opyl's cash flow by approximately $700k per annum based on current cash burn, optimising operational efficiency and financial health.

The divestment allows Opyl to enhance its focus on its flagship AI platform, TrialKey.ai, redirecting capital and efforts towards accelerating its commercialisation and market expansion. The improved financial flexibility from the sale of Opin is expected to extend Opyl's cash runway, enabling more aggressive development and marketing strategies. This strategic divestment underscores Opyl's commitment to driving shareholder value and adapting its business model to focus on core areas with high growth potential.

Board update

As announced in March 2024, Mr. Mark Ziirsen will resign from the board effective from 30 April 2024. Mr. Ziirsen, who has been a significant part of the Company since September 2020 and served as Chairman since August 2022. During his tenure, he led several crucial initiatives, including leadership changes, a refresh of the board, and significant advancements in Opyl's AI platform, TrialKey. His leadership set a solid foundation for future growth.

Saurabh Jain, the interim CEO of Opyl, will transition to the role of Executive Chair on 30 April 2024. Saurabh, who joined Opyl on 24 November 2023, has focused primarily on the commercialisation of TrialKey and was instrumental in the market launch of Trialkey.ai in January.

With over 25 years of experience in leadership roles across various sectors, including founding Netpro Express and holding senior positions at companies like Ventia and Cushman Wakefield, Saurabh brings a wealth of entrepreneurial, technical, and commercial expertise. His extensive background will play a crucial role in advancing Opyl's and TrialKey, and driving the company's value growth. Saurabh also holds a B.E. Software Eng, MBA Exec, MBT, and GAICD. He has also served on several boards, including Urbanise (ASX:UBN) and Spacetalk (ASX:SPA.)

Successful Placement and Entitlement Offer

Opyl Limited successfully completed the placement of 4,666,666 partially underwritten shares and all 24,873,344 shortfall shares from its recent rights issue, raising an additional $886,200 before costs. This capital-raising effort, which concluded with the issuance of 47,778,604 new shares, brought the total raised during the quarter to approximately $1,433,358. The proceeds will be used to accelerate the commercialisation of TrialKey through sales, marketing, and support initiatives, targeted technological enhancements to improve the platform's scalability and user experience and provide working capital. This funding boost underscores the strong shareholder support and will significantly aid in advancing Opyl's AI-driven solutions for clinical trials.

Financial position

The Company ended the quarter with a cash position of $1,095k, including netcash receipts of $1,290k from the equity raise, up $511k on 31 December 2023.

Opyl's underlying operating cash outflow was $761k, an increase of $312K on the prior quarter.

Opyl received $60k in cash receipts from customers, representing a decrease of $141k on the prior quarter ($201k). Staff, administration and corporate costs remained stable. Research and Development costs totalled $43k, down from $66K in the previous quarter. There was an increase of $140k in marketing expenses attributed to the launch of Trialkey.ai

As mentioned above Opyl signed a sales and purchase agreement to divest Opin, with the sale expected to improve cash flow by $700K per annum based on the current cash burn rate.

In accordance with Listing Rule 4.7.B, Opyl made payments to related parties as described in Items 6.1 of the Appendix 4C of $172k. This included $84k in directors' fees and salaries, and the balance being payments to RDI Consulting Pty Ltd (RDI) and Zappli Pty Ltd (Zappli) for R&D expenditure relating to the ongoing development of Opyl's technology platforms. For completeness, RDI and Zappli are entities associated with Opyl's executive director Damon Rasheed and non-executive director Antanas Guoga.

The Board has authorised this announcement for release to the ASX.
