About Cyprium Metals Limited

Cyprium Metals Limited (ASX: CYM) is an ASX-listed Australian copper company. Its flagship property is the Nifty Copper Mine in Western Australia, which previously produced significant copper from both oxide and sulphide resources. Cyprium is focused on redeveloping Nifty, which has the advantage of significant invested capital, data from a long operating history, large-scale resources, current operational approvals, and recent investment in the property.

The Company's other assets include significant copper-focused properties in the Paterson and Murchison Provinces, including multiple defined resources.

CYPRIUM METALS LIMITED (COMPANY) SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

1. Purpose

This document sets out the Company's securities trading policy (Policy) regarding the Company's directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors (irrespective of location) who Deal or may Deal in Company Securities (CYM Personnel) and should be read in its entirety.

The purpose of this Policy is to:

- (a) provide a summary of the law on insider trading in Australia;
- (b) outline the prohibitions on dealing in Company Securities to prevent the misuse of unpublished information which could materially affect the value of such securities;
- (c) ensure that the reputation of the Company, its directors, officers, employees, consultants and contractors is not adversely impacted by perceptions of Dealing in Company Securities at inappropriate times; and
- (d) achieve high standards of corporate conduct and support market confidence in the integrity of Dealing in Company Securities.

2. Insider Trading Prohibition – The Law

2.1. General prohibition

The Corporations Act prohibits a person, while in possession of Inside Information (see clause 2.2. below) from:

- (a) Dealing in Company Securities;
- (b) procuring another person to Deal in Company Securities; or
- (c) communicating Inside Information or causing Inside Information to be communicated, directly or indirectly, to another person who will, or are likely to, Deal on the Inside Information.

The Corporations Act imposes substantial penalties on persons who breach those provisions and applies to the extent of any inconsistency between it and this Policy.

The requirements imposed by this Policy are in addition to any legal prohibitions on insider trading. A person who possesses Inside Information is prohibited from trading and this applies even where:

- (a) the Dealing occurs outside a Black-out Period;
- (b) the Dealing falls within an exclusion in this Policy; or
- (c) Disposal Consent has been given under this Policy (whether in exceptional circumstances or otherwise).

2.2. Possession of inside information

An individual is responsible for assessing whether they possess “Inside Information”. This occurs where:

- (a) the person possesses information that is not generally available to the public and, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Company Securities (or a decision whether or not to trade in them); and
- (b) the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, that the information is not generally available and, if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of Company Securities (or a decision whether or not to trade in them).

For the purposes of clause 2.2(b), a reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence a person who commonly invests in securities to either deal or not deal in securities in any way. Annexure A provides further details about what constitutes Inside Information.

3. Dealing in Company Securities

3.1 When a Designated Person may Deal in Company Securities

A Designated Person may Deal in Company Securities at any time unless restricted from doing so under clause 3.2 (When a Designated Person May Not Deal) and subject to complying with clause 6 (Approval and notification requirements).

3.2 When a Designated Person may not Deal in Company Securities

A Designated Person may not Deal in Company Securities at any time if he or she has:

- (a) information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information; or
- (b) not complied with clause 6 (Approval and notification requirements).

In addition to the above restrictions and subject to clause 5 (Exceptions), a Designated Person may not Deal in Company Securities during the following designated Black-out Periods:

- (a) the period 7 days prior to the end of April, July, October and January until the business day after the release of the Company’s relevant quarterly report;
- (b) the period two weeks prior to, and 24 hours after the release of the Company’s half-year results;
- (c) the period two weeks prior to, and 24 hours after the release of the Company’s full-year results; and
- (d) any other period determined by the Chair in consultation with the Company Secretary to be a Black-out Period from time to time.

3.3 When CYM Personnel (other than a Designated Person) may Deal

CYM Personnel (who is not a Designated Person) may, at any time, Deal in Company Securities if he or she does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information.

3.4 When CYM Personnel (other than a Designated Person) may not Deal

CYM Personnel (who is not a Designated Person) who has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information may not Deal in Company Securities.

4. Ad-Hoc Restrictions

The Company may impose, without notice and in its sole and absolute discretion, additional restrictions on Dealing in Company Securities by any or all Designated Persons as the Company considers appropriate. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company may impose ad-hoc restrictions under this clause even where the proposed Dealing would otherwise take place outside a Black-out Period provided for in this Policy. Any restriction communicated by the Company to any or all Designated Persons under this clause must be kept strictly confidential.

5. Exceptions

5.1 Permitted dealings

Subject to not being in the possession of Inside Information, a Designated Person may at any time:

- (a) transfer Company Securities already held into a superannuation fund or other saving scheme in which the Designated Person is a beneficiary;
- (b) invest in, or trade in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in Company Securities) where the assets of the fund or scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- (c) undertake to accept, or accept, a takeover offer;
- (d) participate in an offer or invitation made to all or most security holders, including a rights issue, equal access buy-back, security purchase plan or dividend or distribution reinvestment plan, where the timing and structure of the offer or invitation has been approved by the Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements and sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue;
- (e) acquire, or agree to acquire, Company Securities under any employee incentive scheme or exercise/convert (but not Deal with the Company Securities following exercise/conversion) an option or right under an employee incentive scheme;
- (f) acquire Company Securities under a bonus issue made to all holders of securities of the same class; and
- (g) acquire Company Securities under a dividend reinvestment, or top-up plan that is available to all holders of securities of the same class; and
- (h) participate in a pre-determined investment or divestment plan (for which prior approval has been obtained) where the Designated Person did not enter into or amend the plan during the Blackout Period, the plan does not permit the Designated Person to exercise any discretion over how, when or whether to acquire or dispose of Company Securities, and this plan cannot be cancelled in a Blackout Period (other than in exceptional circumstances).

5.2 Approval to dispose or transfer Company Securities in exceptional circumstances

- (a) In exceptional circumstances a Designated Person may seek written approval from the Chair (Approval Officer) to dispose of or transfer (but not acquire or otherwise Deal with) Company Securities during a Black-out Period (Disposal Consent). If the Designated Person is a Director, Disposal Consent may be sought from the Board.
- (b) The Approval Officer or Board will act with caution in determining whether there are exceptional circumstances, which may include, but will not be limited to, where:
 - (i) the Designated Person is in severe financial hardship and a pressing financial commitment cannot be satisfied otherwise than by disposing of Company Securities; or
 - (ii) the Designated Person is required by a court order, or there are court enforceability undertakings, to transfer or dispose of Company Securities or there is some other overriding legal regulatory requirement for them to do so.
- (c) A Designated Person seeking Disposal Consent based on clause 5.2(b)(i) must provide the Approval Officer or Board with:
 - (i) a written application stating all of the facts; and
 - (ii) copies of relevant supporting documentation, including contact details of the Designated Person's accountant, bank and other such independent institutions (where applicable).
- (d) A Designated Person seeking Disposal Consent based on clause 5.2(b)(ii) must provide the Approval Officer or Board with a written application accompanied by relevant court and/or supporting legal documentation (where applicable).
- (e) Any decision to grant or refuse to grant Disposal Consent by the Approval Officer or Board:
 - (i) may be made only if that Designated Person is not in possession of Inside Information;
 - (ii) may be made in the Approval Officer's or Board's absolute discretion, without giving any reasons;
 - (iii) can be withdrawn (if clearance has been given) if new information comes to light or there is a change in circumstances;
 - (iv) is final and binding on the Designated Person seeking clearance;
 - (v) must be kept strictly confidential by the Designated Person and not disclosed to any other person (unless otherwise required by law or the ASX Listing Rules); and
 - (vi) may be made on such terms and conditions (including the duration of the right to dispose or transfer) as considered reasonable in the circumstances by the Approval Officer or Board.
- (f) In deciding whether to grant Disposal Consent, the Approval Officer or Board will consider the need to minimise the risk of insider trading, and also to avoid the appearance of insider trading and the significant reputational damage that may cause.
- (g) The Approval Officer will notify the Board of any Disposal Consent granted to a Designated Person.
- (h) A Disposal Consent, if granted, will be issued in writing to the Designated Person and will contain a specified time period during which the disposal or transfer can be made.
- (i) Any Disposal Consent granted under clause 5.2(e) is not an endorsement to dispose of or transfer Company Securities. The Designated Person doing the trading is individually responsible for their investment decisions and their compliance with insider trading laws. The Designated Person must carefully consider whether they are in possession of any Inside Information that might preclude them from trading at that time. If the Designated Person is in any doubt, they should not trade.

- (j) If a Designated Person comes into possession of Inside Information after receiving a Disposal Consent, they must not trade despite having received the consent.

6. Approval and Notification Requirements

6.1 Approval requirements

- (a) Any Designated Person (other than a Director) wishing to Deal in Company Securities must obtain the prior written approval of the Chair before doing so.
- (b) In the case of a Director, prior written approval to Deal in Company Securities must be obtained from the Chair. If the Chair wishes to Deal in Company Securities, the Chair must obtain the prior written approval of the Board before doing so.

6.2 Approvals to Deal

- (a) All requests to Deal in Company Securities as referred to in clause 6.1 must:
 - (i) include the intended volume of Company Securities to be Dealt in and an estimated time frame for the Dealing; and
 - (ii) confirm that the Designated Person is not in possession of Inside Information.
- (b) Copies of written approvals must be forwarded to the Company Secretary prior to the approved Dealing.

6.3 Notification

- (a) Subsequent to approval obtained in accordance with clause 6.2, any Designated Person who Deals in Company Securities must notify the Company Secretary in writing:
 - (i) of the details of the transaction within five business days of the Dealing occurring; and
 - (ii) if they begin to have, or cease to have, a “substantial holding” (as defined in section 9 of the Corporations Act) in the Company, or if they have a substantial holding in the Company and there is a movement of at least 1% in their holding.
- (b) The notification obligation in clause 6.3(a)(i) operates at all times unless otherwise advised by the Company Secretary.

7. Other Restrictions

7.1 Incomplete Buy or Sell Orders

- (a) Buy or sell orders for Company Securities which are placed but not completed outside of a Black-out Period are subject to the following restrictions once the Black-out Period commences:
 - (i) the order must be completed within five trading days otherwise it will lapse; and
 - (ii) the order cannot be varied.
- (b) Any order subject to this procedure should be notified in writing to the Company Secretary within 24 hours of the Black-out Period commencing.

7.2 No short-term trading

Under no circumstances should CYM Personnel engage in short-term or speculative trading in Company Securities. This prohibition includes short term direct dealing in Company Securities as well as transactions in the derivative markets, involving exchange traded options, share warrants, contracts for difference, and other similar instruments, which are short term or speculative.

7.3 No short selling

Under no circumstances should CYM Personnel enter into transactions involving Company Securities that are, or might reasonably be perceived to be, short selling

7.4 No hedging transactions

The entering into of all types of hedging transactions or “protection arrangements” for any Company Securities:

- (a) is prohibited at any time in respect of any Company Securities which are unvested or subject to a holding lock; and
- (b) otherwise, requires approval under clause 6.

For the avoidance of doubt and without limiting the generality of this Policy, entering into protection arrangements includes entering into transactions which:

- (a) operate to limit the economic risk of any CYM Personnel’s security holding (e.g. hedging arrangements) including Company Securities held beneficially (for example, in trust or under an incentive plan) on that CYM Personnel’s behalf; or
- (b) otherwise enable a CYM Personnel to profit from a decrease in the market price of securities.

7.5 Prohibition on Margin Loan arrangements

Any CYM Personnel may not:

- (a) enter into a Margin Loan or similar funding arrangement to acquire any Company Securities; or
- (b) use Company Securities as security for a Margin Loan or similar funding arrangement.

7.6 Securities of other companies

The prohibitions in the Corporations Act against insider trading applies equally to where Inside Information is being held by a person about another listed company or entity. This may occur, for example, where in the course of negotiating a transaction with the Company, another listed entity provides confidential information about itself or another listed entity. Accordingly, if a person possesses Inside Information in relation to the securities of another listed entity, they must not Deal in those securities.

8. Penalties

Insider trading is a criminal offence. A person who commits a breach of the insider trading provisions could be subject to both civil and criminal penalties for the individual and for the Company.

In addition, the insider trader, and any other persons involved in the contravention, may also be liable to compensate third parties for any resulting loss.

9. Policy Compliance

During the year the Company may require confirmation from Designated Persons that they have complied with this Policy. The Company may also require confirmation (or declarations) of holdings in securities. All such requested information must be supplied within five business days of the request being made.

A breach of this Policy will be regarded as serious misconduct and may lead to disciplinary action being taken (including termination of employment). If the Company becomes aware of any breach of this Policy, then the Company may report such breach to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

10. ASX Notifications

- (a) The Company must notify ASX within 5 business days after any change to a Director's relevant interest in Company Securities or a related body corporate of the Company, including whether the change occurred inside a Black-out Period and, if so, whether prior written clearance was provided.
- (b) To enable the Company to comply with the obligation set out in clause 10(a), a Director must immediately (and no later than 4 business days after any relevant event) notify the Company Secretary in writing of the requisite information for the Company Secretary to make the necessary notifications to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and ASX as required under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules.

11. Contact and Publication

If anyone is in any doubt regarding their proposed Dealing in Company Securities, they should contact the Company Secretary.

This Policy will be lodged with ASX and also be made available from the Company website at <https://cypriummetals.com/about-us/corporate-governance/>.

12. Review and Assessment

This Policy shall be reviewed annually by the Board to ensure that it is operating effectively.

ANNEXURE A – INSIDE INFORMATION SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

1. Inside Information

Inside Information means information which is not generally available to the market and, if it were generally available to the market, would be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of securities.

2. Information that is generally available

- (a) Information is considered to be generally available if:
 - (i) it consists of readily observable matter; or
 - (ii) it has been made known in a manner likely to bring it to the attention of investors in securities and a reasonable period for dissemination of that information has elapsed; or
 - (iii) it may be deduced, inferred or concluded from the above.
- (b) Information will be generally available if it has been released to the ASX, published in an annual report or prospectus or otherwise been made generally available to the investing public and a reasonable period of time has elapsed after the information has been disseminated in one of these ways.
- (c) For the purposes of the insider trading provisions of the Corporations Act, information is defined broadly and includes matters of supposition and other matters which are insufficiently definite to warrant being made known to the public. It also includes matters relating to the intentions of a person.

3. Material effect on price of securities

- (a) Information is considered by the Corporations Act to be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of securities of a company if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether or not to subscribe for, buy or sell those securities.
- (b) It is not possible to list all of information that may be material, however, the following type of information would be likely to be considered to have a material effect on the Company's share price:
 - (i) information regarding a material increase or decrease in the Company's financial performance from previous results or forecasts, such as changes to profit results;
 - (ii) a proposed material business or asset acquisition or sale;
 - (iii) the damage or destruction of a material operation of the Company;
 - (iv) proposed material legal proceedings to be initiated by or against the Company;
 - (v) regulatory action or investigations undertaken by a government authority;
 - (vi) the launch of a new business or material new product; or
 - (vii) a proposal to undertake a new issue of securities or major change in financing.
