CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER SUCCESSOR ANNOUNCED

Leading global mining-tech company, Imdex Limited (IMDEX or the Company), today provides an update on its succession plans for its Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Following the market announcement on 20 March 2024 which advised current CFO Paul Evans would be retiring from this role towards the end of calendar year 2024, an extensive selection process across a variety of internal and external candidates was undertaken.

As a result of that process, the Company is delighted to announce that internal candidate, Linda Lim, IMDEX's current Global Head of Finance, will be appointed CFO effective from 1 January 2025.

Ms Lim, a finance and business executive with 25 years of industry experience, joined IMDEX in October 2023 from Woodside Energy, where she managed the Scarborough Business Unit and was a member of the Scarborough Development Leadership team. Prior to this, Linda spent three years as the Vice President, Group Financial Control where she was responsible for corporate financial reporting, business finance, accounting policy and processes, and corporate governance for Woodside.

Since joining, Linda has made a significant impact across the IMDEX business as well as her own financial portfolio, including but not limited to guiding key aspects of the Devico integration; transforming the structure of the finance team; and engagements with both the Board and investor community.

A transition plan is in place to ensure the smooth and orderly transition of responsibility between Mr Evans and Ms Lim. Mr Evans will continue to take primary responsibility for corporate reporting and investor engagement until well after the Company's annual general meeting in October.

Commenting on the appointment, IMDEX Managing Director, Mr Paul House said:

"It was a robust selection process and Linda stood out against a field of quality candidates. I look forward to working with Linda as we continue to drive long term sustainable earnings growth for our shareholders. Linda's commitment and dedication to IMDEX has already been evident during her time with us, and Linda's appointment as CFO is a natural progression of a talented individual who will provide great benefits to her team, fellow executives and shareholders."

Mr House added:

"The Board and I would again like to thank Paul Evans for his years of dedicated service to IMDEX. Paul should be proud of the legacy he leaves in creating one of the world's leading mining-tech companies. It has been a true pleasure working alongside Paul and I wish him all the best for his future endeavours after he steps down at the end of the year.”
