ASX RELEASE*GENERATIVE AI COMPANY ACQUISITION & EQUITY RAISING

Vection Technologies Ltd (ASX:VR1, OTC:VCTNY), ("Vection" or the "Company"), the INTEGRATEDXR® company, announces that it has entered into an agreement ("Acquisition Agreement") to acquire all the shares in The Digital Box S.p.A. ("TDB"), a generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) company ("Proposed Acquisition").

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Vection to acquire generative AI company, The Digital Box, enhancing its AI and XR capabilities.
- TDB reported $10 million in revenue and $1 million EBITDA for FY24, indicating that the acquisition is expected to be value-accretive for Vection's shareholders.
- Former Apple COO Marco Landi to join Vection's board, adding significant expertise and credibility.
- Combining TDB's technology with Vection's ecosystem to unlock new cross-sell opportunities and drive revenue growth.
- Strongly supported, growth-focused equity funding round of $2 million to support the acquisition and working capital.

OVERVIEW:

TDB is a technology company that develops and markets 3D and AI platforms based on advanced natural language processing technology. This technology enables voice interaction with data, services, and information systems. TDB helps customers bridge the physical and digital worlds through 3D digital humans, reducing costs and improving efficiencies.

TDB's technology complements Vection's ecosystem and aligns well with Vection's focus on enterprise customers.

The acquisition's initial enterprise value is ~$12m, with ~157m (~$1.5m) in newly issued shares payable at settlement. Up to ~55m Vection shares will be issued if TDB achieves sales and EBITDA objectives and balance sheet valuation targets one year post-acquisition.

In FY24, TDB reported $10 million in unaudited revenue and $1 million in unaudited EBITDA, indicating that the acquisition is expected to be value accretive for Vection's shareholders. Settlement is expected in Q2 FY25, subject to customary closing conditions and subject to former global COO of Apple Computer, Marco Landi, joining Vection's board as non-executive chair.

Vection will integrate the TDB team and technology into its global business, making TDB's technological capabilities available to existing and new customers. This integration will create a wide range of cross-sell and growth opportunities across both companies' customer bases, strengthening revenue and driving EBITDA growth. Vection's CEO & Managing Director Mr Biagi said, "The acquisition of TDB will strengthen the integration of AI and XR technologies and enhance customer experiences. These innovations will provide a significant competitive advantage, allowing us to deliver unique solutions. This strategic investment in AI and XR will ensure we remain at the forefront of technological advancement and drive long-term growth."

Under the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, upon satisfaction of the conditions precedent, including Vection shareholder approval and ASX approvals, the Company agrees to acquire and the shareholders of TDB agree to sell 100% of the issued share capital in TDB free from any encumbrances. The key terms of the Proposed Acquisition are set out in the annexure to this announcement.

PLACEMENT:

In addition to the Proposed Acquisition, Vection has received firm commitments for a strongly supported equity funding round of $2 million via the placement of new fully paid ordinary shares ("Shares") to be issued at $0.01 per Share, representing a discount of 23.7% on the last 15-days Volume Weighted Average Price.

Via this Placement, Vection intends to support the acquisition of TDB, strengthen its balance sheet, and position the Company as a globally emerging leader.

The Placement of $2 million (before costs of the offer) will be completed through the issue of 200 million Shares at an issue price of $0.01 per Share. The Placement is expected to settle on 5 September 2024. The Placement Shares are proposed to rank equally with the existing shares of the Company. The Placement will include, subject to shareholder approval, 1 free attaching listed option for every Share issued under the Placement, with each option having an exercise price of $0.018 and an expiry date 3 years from the date of issue.

The Company engaged Evolution Capital ("Evolution") as Lead Manager to the Placement. The Placement is undertaken within the Company's existing capacity under Listing Rule 7.1 and 7.1A, and accordingly, shareholder approval is not required.

Evolution (or its nominee) has been offered 70 million listed options with an exercise price of $0.018 and an expiry of 3 years from the date of issue as part payment for the services provided in connection with the Placement. Evolution will also receive a Management fee of 2.0% and selling fee of 4.0% of the funds raised under the Placement.

Use of Funds:

The funds raised under the Placement will support Vection's working capital and acquisition costs and the capacity to execute strategic initiatives.

AUTHORISATION:

This ASX release is authorised by the Board of Directors of Vection Technologies Limited.
