Retirement of Ian Hume and Withdrawal of AGM Resolution

Alma Metals Limited (the "Company") (ASX: ALM) advises that Mr Ian Hume will be retiring from the Board of Directors and therefore shall not be seeking re-election at the Company's Annual General Meeting. The Board thanks Mr Hume for his valuable contributions and service to the Company during his eleven-year tenure as a Non-Executive Director, and wishes him well for the future.

The Company advises that Resolution 2 concerning the re-election of Ian Hume as a Director, which was to be considered at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) scheduled for 30 October 2024, has been withdrawn.

The withdrawal of this resolution will not affect the business to be conducted at the AGM, and the remaining resolutions will be put to shareholders as planned.

This announcement is authorised for release by the Board of Directors.

ABOUT ALMA METALS LIMITED

Alma Metals Limited (Alma) is an ASX-listed copper company focused primarily on the development of its Briggs Copper Project (Briggs or the Project) in Queensland, Australia. Briggs boasts more than 1 million tonnes of contained copper with significant potential for further expansion in tonnage and grade via ongoing drilling activities. The Project's scale, open-pit potential and location allow for substantial operational efficiencies which enhance its feasibility and potential economic viability.

Briggs benefits from its location in a tier one jurisdiction with exceptional infrastructure, reducing up-front capital costs. The site is just 60km from the deep-water port of Gladstone, with proximity to multiple high-voltage power lines, a heavy haulage railway, multiple gas pipelines, and major roads like the Dawson Highway. This infrastructure, coupled with a local skilled workforce and straightforward land ownership, substantially improve the Project's overall viability.

Alma also holds the East Kimberley Copper Project (East Kimberley), located north-west of Wyndham in Western Australia. While currently at an early stage, East Kimberley presents an exciting exploration opportunity for the Company in a first mover province.
