Satisfaction of final Conditions Precedent

Ganfeng has confirmed that all required Chinese Government approvals have now been received and, as a consequence, all conditions precedent to the MLBV Sale have been satisfied. Completion of the MLBV Sale is scheduled to occur on 26 November 2024 (Completion).

At Completion Leo Lithium is entitled to receive the Tranche 1 consideration of US$161 million. The Company anticipates receiving the net Tranche 1 payment of US$116.3 million on 26 November 2024.

A Tranche 2 payment of US$171.2 million is payable by 30 June 2025 (Tranche 2 Consideration). Interest will accrue on the unpaid Tranche 2 Consideration from Completion until the payment date at a rate of Secured Overnight Finance Rate +2%.

The Company anticipates that, subject to Completion occurring, the US$116.3 million net Tranche 1 payment, the US$10.5 million deposit and the A$11.5 million Firefinch Limited contribution will be distributed to shareholders in January 2025 (Tranche 1 Distribution). Further details on the Tranche 1 Distribution will be provided following Completion.
